

McCarthy Probe Moves Swiftly

"On my honor I will try to do my duty to God and my country . . . " such is the opening phrase of the Girl Scout promise, the backbone of the Girl Scout program, and the ethical code which guides over two million young girls in this country.

Less than a month ago, the parents of the nation were shocked by an unprecedented attack on the Girl Scout program by the Illinois American Legion. Although this attack was later recanted, much misunderstanding still exists in regard to the principles and ideals of the Girl Scout organization.

A recent editor in a prominent Chicago newspaper pointed out that "like the American Legion, the Girl Scouts have a congressional charter. Their patriotic aims are the same. The Girl Scouts report to Congress on their activities every year. Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower is honorary president. J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, is a member of the advisory council, which includes outstanding citizens."

The Girl Scout organization has consistently tried through badge requirements and suggested activities, to inculcate love of our country, appreciation for the heritage of the United States, and respect for its laws. One of the aims, through badge activity, is to stimulate the girl to learn for herself the meaning and implications of the Constitution, Bill of Rights and other great American documents. The new "My Government" badge, introduced in 1953, lays particular emphasis on the basic responsibilities of United States citizenship.

The Handbook is no more than a guide to the program, and contains only a limited amount of resource material. The elimination of the Bill of Rights, which was in very fine print, did not mean that the study of the Bill of Rights was eliminated from the program itself, but rather that the material should be looked up in a more detailed source.

The emphasis on world friendship and world brotherhood found in the Girl Scout program is the same as that preached from thousands of pulpits throughout this nation. The organization believes that by learning about the children of other lands, a girl will find out for herself that all children have similar basic interests, regardless of color, creed, or tongue.

In spite of the recent furor, members of the organization are confident that the Girl Scout movement is so firmly rooted in the American way of life that it will not only survive this storm, but be stronger and finer because of it.

Polio Cases Near Peak For Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The public health service said today "it appears that a definite 'leveling off' has been reached in new polio cases and that 'the peak is now being approached.'"

There were 2,219 new cases of infantile paralysis reported over the nation last week, only three more than the 2,207 in the week ended Aug. 21 and 27 fewer than the 2,237 in the corresponding week a year ago.

Up to Saturday, there had been 17,112 cases this year, compared with 18,191 in the similar 1953 period.

Predict 100 Million Church Members

NEW YORK (AP)—The Christian Herald magazine, an inter-denominational Protestant publication, predicts that total church membership in the United States will be 100 million by 1956.

Church membership of all denominations last year, it said, totaled nearly 95 million, a 2½ million gain over 1952.

Private Testifies At Officer Trial Says Fleming Merely Passed On Red Recording Demand

FT. SHERIDAN, Ill. (AP)—A former army private today testified that Lt. Col. Harry Fleming once participated in a Communist-inspired demand that United Nations forces get out of Korea.

John G. Ward, 22, Detroit, testified at the court-martial of Fleming, 46-year-old artillery officer from Racine, Wis., who is accused of collaborating with the Communists in a North Korean prison camp.

Ward, now employed as a laborer, was 18 when captured by the Reds in November, 1951, and taken to a prison camp where Fleming, captured earlier, was the senior American officer. Fleming is the first American officer to face court-martial for behavior as a POW in Korea.

Red Inspired

Ward testified that everybody in the prison compound knew that the tape-recorded demand calling for United Nations forces to leave Korea was inspired by the Red prison commander and that Fleming merely passed on the word to the other POWs.

The witness said a POW group which included Fleming, several other POWs and himself which made the tape recording refused to voice-sign the demand until the Reds agreed to change the title deleting the word "demand" and substituting "appeal."

The witness testified that Fleming and himself also participated in another appeal which called on the United Nations troops to surrender. He said the POWs agreed to make these tape-recorded appeals under threats of being sent to "The Caves," a Red punishment camp.

The witness said that on another occasion he wrote an article for the Communist after Fleming told the POWs that the Red camp commander threatened to send prisoners who failed to cooperate to the Caves. Ward said he wrote a piece asking for a cease-fire order by the American government so that the men could go home.

Ward said that on another occasion Fleming, a Lt. Wilson, an Englishman, and himself held rehearsals of a round-table discussion in an empty building daily for about 10 days in preparation for a tape recording on the subject of a world peace congress which the Reds demanded.

He said the group later made the recording with each man giving his personal opinion, all of which were favorable.

Discussed Stalling

On cross-examination by counsel for Fleming, the witness said he and Fleming, who shared the same sleeping quarters for a period of time, frequently discussed stalling tactics against the Reds' demands for propaganda material in efforts to get more food and better medical attention for the POWs.

The tape recordings were part of five Communist propaganda brought to the military court. Lt. Col. John R. Prichard, Army prosecutor, said he was introducing the recordings in an attempt to show that Fleming broadcast for the Reds while he was their prisoner.

Prichard said he hoped to conclude his case against Fleming today, on the fourth day of the 46-year-old career Army officer's trial before a general court martial.

State Fair Racing Income Jumps $20,000 This Year

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Official Illinois state fair figures today showed the state received a larger share from 1954 auto and motorcycle races than in 1953 when gross income from the races was greater.

The state Agriculture Department figures disclosed the gross was $10,000 less and the state's share approximately $20,000 greater than in 1953.

Then a controversy over the racing promotion contract caused the state to revert to a practice of handling the race promotion itself this year.

An exact comparison was not possible since a private promoter, Byron Schroeder, publicly aide to city Commissioner John Hunter, handled the races last year at higher admission prices. This year the fair had its own promoter and reduced prices.

Another obstacle to exact comparison was the matter of who paid salaries connected with race and grand stand administration. Sillman Stanard, department director, said he believes that last year the promoter paid them but is unsure of the amount. This year they were charged to the fair payroll.

In 1953, the taxes grossed $94,644. This year they brought only $84,343.

Last year, for promoting the races, Schroeder received a total of $30,957 out of which he paid expenses, while the state got about $24,000.

This year, after payment of reduced federal taxes, prizes and expenses, the state realized $47,500, Stanard said.

Lodge and Reuther Address Legion in Closing Sessions

Ambassador Tells Reds' Asian Aim

Labor Spokesman Raps 'Bargain Basement' Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., said today he has proof that the Chinese Communists five years ago were given the job of spearheading "an organized Communist attempt to conquer all of Asia."

Lodge, U. S. representative to the United Nations, told the American Legion in a prepared talk that this is one of several reasons why admitting Red China to the U. N. "would be an insult to the entire principle of collective security."

The ambassador spoke to weary delegates, on the final day of their 36th annual convention, as they struggled through a business logjam, dominated by anti-Communist resolutions and including several strongly opposing U. N. membership for the Peiping regime.

The parade of speakers continues today, with CIO President Walter Reuther on the list.

"No Bargain"

In a speech for the convention, Reuther said "there is no bargain basement answer to adequate defense" and said the CIO is "greatly disturbed by the apparent tendency of placing budgetary considerations ahead of security needs."

"To falsely economize, on the theory that we need to be prepared only for total atomic wars," he said, "will give strategic areas of the world to the Communists by default, and will encourage more and more repetition of what happened in Indochina."

Reuther urged "sound governmental policies" to solve "unemployment and under-employment in America" and called again for a top-level national economic conference to study the problem.

He said President Eisenhower has not acted on a previous CIO suggestion for such a conference but added "we still hope that sound common sense will prevail over what we consider obviously erroneous political device to the President."

Adduci Back On Ballot In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Former State Rep. James J. Adduci again has been named a candidate for the Legislature, two days after being thrown off the ballot.

A three-man group, the 2nd District GOP Senatorial Committee, Wednesday night nominated Adduci for the second time to fill the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of State Rep. James Yacullo.

Tuesday the State Electoral Board headed by Gov. Stratton turned down the bid of Adduci to be listed on the Nov. 2 ballot.

The board ruled that a nominating resolution signed by two members of the 2nd District Committee was invalid.

But Wednesday night the committee met again in the home of one of the members, Francis Tufano, 28, a truck driver. Tufano announced that Bernardi and Ciangi had resigned, and Anthony Appa and Samuel J. Spratt had taken their places. Spratt is Adduci's son-in-law.

Edward F. Moore, chairman of the GOP Cook County Committee, who moved to have Adduci thrown off the ballot Tuesday, said he will continue his fight to keep Adduci off.

He said he will confer with Atty. Gen. Latham Castle and members of the Electoral Board on ways to fight Adduci, leader of the West Side Bloc in the Legislature.

Crews Battle Aftermath Of East Coast Hurricane Death Toll Rises to 54; Search for 19 Missing

BOSTON (AP)—Repair crews and public health experts worked feverishly today to avert further perils to health and safety as the aftermaths of Hurricane Carol, which gave New England a multi-million-dollar battering Tuesday.

Other workers and volunteers searched for missing persons, many of them children. Fifty-four persons were known to have been killed.

Nineteen were listed as missing, sweeping a 10-month-old baby girl swept from the arms of her mother, Mrs. Robert M. Crosby, 25, of Brockton, Mass.

Mrs. Crosby said her baby, Sharon Eleanor, was torn from her arms as she tried to escape from the wind-buckled cottage on Onset Island, Mass.

No Trace

No trace was found of the baby up to early today. Nor was there any trace of the three Winick children, Paula, 7, Elsie, 5, and Neal, 2, who are feared drowned in Fallmouth.

Their mother, Mrs. Martha Winick, 33, and her sister, Judge Golda R. Walters, 46, of the Ayer District Court, perished when their cottage was swept into Great Pond. Their bodies were found on the beach.

Fully one-third of New England was reported without electrical power early today, posing a mammoth health problem since an estimated 3½ million persons had no means of refrigeration for foods.

Emergency repair crews were brought into New England from points as far as Pennsylvania and Michigan to restore telephone and electrical service.

Clear "Jungles"

Tree surgery experts also were brought here to direct the clearance of the jungle of broken and uprooted trees which cluttered most of New England's streets and parks and private properties.

Massachusetts took steps last night to avert a wholesale spoilage of food and contamination of drinking water, threatened by lack of refrigeration and powerless pumps.

A National Guard plane was put into use to establish a dry ice air-lift between Boston and a big Newark, N. J., manufacturing plant.

At Logan Airport, public health officials directed the distribution of the dry ice to communities with the greatest need.

Trotter Heads Police Assn.

Policeman Edward Trotter is the new president of the Dixon unit, Policeman's Benevolent and Protective Association.

He was elected last night at the annual meeting of the unit. Patrolman John Woodruff was elected vice president, and Police Sgt. Burt Lorenzen was named secretary-treasurer.

After naming Lorenzen and Sgt. Earl Kelchner delegates to the state organization's convention in Peoria, the police group voted to hold the annual policeman's ball on Nov. 10. It has not been decided where to hold the event.

Bishop Sheil Steps Down As Head of Catholic Youth

CHICAGO (AP)—Bishop Bernard J. Sheil has resigned as director general of the Catholic Youth Organization.

His action was reported today in a 28-word announcement from the CYP, which he founded in 1930. It said:

"Bishop Sheil has resigned as director general of the Catholic Youth Organization of the archdiocese of Chicago. His eminence, Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago will appoint his successor."

Neither the CYP nor the chancery office, the headquarters of the Roman Catholic Chicago archdiocese, offered any immediate elaboration.

The announcement did not make clear whether Bishop Sheil was severing all connections with the CYP.

Hurricane Dolly Will Bypass U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hurricane Dolly picked up a little speed early today and headed toward the southeast tip of Newfoundland, well away from New England, which still is cleaning up after receiving the full force of Hurricane Carol.

The Weather Bureau said the fourth hurricane of the season was about 485 miles east of Atlantic City, N. J., and moving northeastward about 35 to 40 miles an hour.

A Weather Bureau observer said continued movement in a northeasterly direction would take it into the Grand Banks. He said trans-Atlantic shipping was in for trouble.

Transient Living in Coal Yard Now at New Address: Jail

A transient who made his home in an automobile parked in a coal yard, had a new home in the county jail today.

Police arrested Ivan Nehring, 50, at 9:20 p. m. Wednesday, charging him with vagrancy. He was given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Sterling W. Schrock, pleaded not guilty and his hearing was set for Sept. 11. He was unable to post $200 bond and was remanded to the county jail.

The complaint against Nehring was signed by Mark Zigler. Police said that Nehring apparently had been living for some time in an automobile parked at the Shomaker Coal Yard, 508 Depot Ave. Among the articles found in the auto were clothing and empty wine bottles.

Examine Evidence On Hoover Letter In Army Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators weighing proposed censure of Sen. McCarthy swung today to the last of their five charges — the allegation of "possible violation of the espionage act" by the Wisconsin senator.

The swift-paced hearing had moved quickly over the question of whether McCarthy has encouraged government employees to slip him official secrets.

On both these points, the hearing borrowed heavily from testimony before the recent McCarthy-Army hearing.

Williams Protests

And on both counts, McCarthy's lawyer, Edward Bennett Williams, protested that some of the material going into the new hearing record was being taken out of context.

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) told Williams that is representing his own case he would have opportunity to "read into evidence anything that is not clearly off the subject."

Guy G. de Furia, assistant counsel of the committee, read from the McCarthy-Army hearings on the espionage act charge as McCarthy sat silently and his lawyer interjected his comments and protests.

De Furia read extracts from the transcript of the McCarthy-Army hearings, for May 4.

"Violated Law"

That was the day McCarthy offered in evidence a document which he described as a letter from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, and which Hoover later said was a 2½ page document which quoted verbatim some sections of a 15-page memorandum he had sent to the Army intelligence department, but which itself was no letter he had ever written.

McCarthy said during the McCarthy-Army hearings that he got the document from an Army intelligence officer who he said told him he was concerned because Army officials were not acting on the information.

The Army said at the time that any officer who gave it to McCarthy had violated the law. It has since said its own investigation has convinced it that McCarthy did not in fact get the document from any Army officer or Army civilian employee.

In the first two days of hearings, the committee finished putting in evidence on three of the five main groups of charges, except for possible odds and ends, with McCarthy sitting by largely silent, leaving his case in the hands of Atty. Edward Bennett Williams.

The committee already has gone into evidence on charges that:

1. McCarthy showed contempt of

Lee county taxpayers have paid more than 95 per cent of their 1953 tax bills, County Treasurer Albert Hillison said today.

Of the total bill of $2,933,262.98, Lee county residents have paid $2,798,504.61, or 95.4 per cent. Hillison said. The figure represents payments up to Sept. 1.

The first installment of real estate taxes now bears a four per cent penalty and the second installment bears a one per cent penalty, Hillison explained.

The delinquent real estate tax list goes to the printers at noon Saturday, Sept. 11, and the real estate list will be published the week of Sept. 13. Tax sales will be held in October.

Who Can Be a Hermit With TV?

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newfeatures Writer

It was bound to come of course, and it has—the portable television set.

As things look now, it is only a matter of time until there just won't be any place in the world where old movies and quiz shows will not only fill the air but also interrupt the scenery.

Things got kind of desperate even with non-portable television I knew until a couple of months ago, of a little valley surrounded by high mountains on all sides from which the television pictures are thrown and it was a pleasant refuge for one who had taken refuge about as many "funny" panels and glib singers and boy dancers as the system could absorb without violent reaction.

Last time I fell to this spot, set up something that doesn't require writing, and then into the automobile, onto the beach will go the lady wrestlers, the baseball players and the masters of ceremonies.

I believe some frightened communities already have taken steps to outlaw television sets in the front seats of automobiles on the theory that a fellow just can't watch his favorite whodunit and grade crossings at the same time.

This would not necessarily apply, however, to the people in a rear seat—and I suppose the television people will soon be advocating tonneau TV as an antidote to back seat driving.

There was a time when an old-fashioned piece of equipment caused the portable radio first came out and some folks took to carrying it around with them into public restaurants, trains and even to the baseball games so they could find out what was happening on the diamond in front of them.

I don't sign the day, not far off when the average Dodge car will show up at a ball game laden with his portable TV able to watch both the heroes in front of him and those in some other game played far away.

This undoubtedly is part of the forward march of civilization and is inevitable.

Pachuco Tattoo Symbol Of Youthful Hoodlumism

In Los Angeles It's Old Stuff, Say Police Experts

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The tattooed mark of the Pachuco has swept across the nation as a symbol of modern-day youthful hoodlumism. Its common form is a cross with a sort of halo of dots made with a pin or knife and ink on the web between the thumb and forefinger, or on the arm or chest. It puzzles and worries civil and military authorities in many areas, but in Los Angeles it is old stuff considered virtually passe.

Is it smart-aleck feeding of the young ego, naive copy-cat activity or a sinister secret terrorist organization?

A Los Angeles authority, Police Lt. Richard D. Whitley of the juvenile detail and former commander of the gang detail established in 1948, said today he has no evidence of any national organization of Pachucos.

On two former bar girls in vice-ridden Phenix City, Ala. Lt. Whitley, who flew to Chanute to advise the military on the Pachuco problem, said:

His Views

"I am convinced that this recent spread is simply a symbol of unsocial youth. One boy hears about it, or sees the mark on somebody else in jail or in the military guardhouse, and thinks it would be a good idea to have his own mark to boast about. Chances are many haven't the slightest idea what 'Pachuco' means."

"We know what it means but it is impossible to translate accurately. We heard it as long ago as 1941, and it came into usage in 1943 in the riot-fights between zoot-suits and servicemen in Los Angeles."

"The term Pachuco came to the coast from the El Paso, Tex., border country during the war. It is a Mexican slang expression originally applied in derogatory meaning to the 'zooties'—the smart-alecks, toughs, hoodlums or whatever you wish to call them of Mexican descent who wore long coats, peg-top, ankle tight pants, duck tail haircuts and thick-soled shoes."

CHAPEAU?—Shapely Sandy Penderhey shows her latest hat fashion while soaking up the sun at Miami Beach, Fla. A few deft strokes of a razor blade turns the hat into one that can be talked through.

No Organization

On the contrary, he said the youthful gangs of this and other large cities in which there may be Pachuco members have no formal organization, no officers, dues, bylaws or rules. The fellow who is the toughest and talks the best is the leader, the organization is confined to tight geographical or neighborhood boundaries.

The Pachuco tattoo has appeared recently on 30 airmen at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., in Kansas City, in Des Moines Iowa where police called it "juvenile copy-cat stuff," at Lackland AFB Tex., at Sampson AFB Geneva N.Y. on five AWOL men at Lockbourne AFB, Ohio, in Columbus and the Ohio State Penitentiary at Ft. Campbell Ky., and nearby Clarksville, Tenn. on civilians in Omaha, Neb., Chicago and New York, and

Loses Significance

"But now it has lost that significance. It has been adopted, or applied to, youngsters who are, or think they are, toughs of all grades. But we find it no longer applies only to Mexican Americans. The kids recently involved show no pattern of nationality or race. It is simply become a symbol associated with the very widespread youthful gang problem."

"In fact, the viciousness today—the knives, beer can openers used as slashing weapons, saps, billes, switch-knives, palm saps and guns, the wanton cutting, beating or shooting of victims without reason—go far beyond the original zoot-suit or Pachuco troubles where just plain fists frequently were the only weapon."

Work, Sleep, Play In Comfort

Without Naggng Backache

Naggng backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down many folks suffer naggng backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up night or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's gives happy relief from these discomforts—helps the millions of kidney troubles flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Find "Code"

Whitley said one Caucasian youth at Chanute had a "code of Pachuco" rules including no "ratting" on fellow members, no cooperation with authorities helping each other. He said that was the only instance he had ever encountered of such a "code" and he is convinced it was "just one kid's bright idea."

Liquor figures in probably 90 per cent of the Pachuco trouble, he said and narcotics mostly marijuana to a lesser degree.

Chicago Beauty Queen Ineligible For Title Chance

CHICAGO (AP)—A beauty queen's casual question about a runner-up led to her dethronement.

Jeanne Johnson 19 was named Miss Chicago two weeks ago and she was reported to have asked, "Who is this Reggie Dombeck?"

Miss Dombeck a blonde North western University sophomore, was named Miss Photoflash earlier this year by the Chicago Press Photographers Assn. She was runner-up to Miss Johnson in the Miss Chicago contest.

When Miss Johnson asked that, Reggie's mother, Miss John Dombeck said, "We knew she couldn't have been in Chicago very long."

Judges of the contest decided Wednesday that Miss Johnson, who came here from Detroit June 28, didn't meet the six months residence requirement and awarded the title to Miss Dombeck.

Miss Johnson had scored 34 out of a possible 35 points. Miss Dombeck 21.

FANCY PANTS—Actress Gloria Swanson, left, and her daughter, Michele Farmer, are right in style wearing their slacks at the 15th International Film Festival in Venice, Italy. Dress designer Emilio said that slacks are not only idea for lounging, but are here to stay as formal dinner attire.

SOUTHERN EXPOSURE, TURNPIKE STYLE—Most of the home of Louis Githin was in the path of the Delaware River turnpike extension linking the Pennsylvania and New Jersey turnpikes—so part of the house near Willow Grove, Pa., had to come down. The part that was on ground not taken over by the turnpike authority doesn't concern highway engineers. They just left that part standing. Githin and three brothers have battled the turnpike since the extension was started, at one time holding off workmen with shotguns. They are now engaged in litigation over damages the authority will pay for their properties. (AP Wirephoto).

Farmer Finds Couple of Camels Aren't Just Hay

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

AURADE, France (NEA)—When Joseph Santamaria left Aurade last year to open a bakery in Casablanca, he told his brother-in-law: "I'll send you a couple of camels."

Farmer Henri Davezac laughed politely and thought no more about it—until the other day.

Practical joker Joseph did send him a couple of camels. And for a while Davezac would have bothered anybody who dared quote the Arab proverb which says "a camel is a heaven-sent gift."

All this came about when Santamaria, busily baking in Casablanca, heard that a score of camels left over from a big show in Paris were to be auctioned off. This was his undreamed-of chance to make good his boast so he cabled a bid and found himself the buyer of two 15-year-old diomedes for $500.

Davezac's surprises came by camel hoof from the nearest railroad station and were followed every step of the 20-mile hike by a crowd of excited little boys and chattering adults.

But that was nothing compared to the reception when Davezac parked his single-humped ships of the desert in his barnyard.

The cows took one look, moored uncontentedly, and charged head-on into the camels. The camels kicked back with their enormous legs.

Davezac tucked the camels away in an old barn, and next morning found they had devoured the entire stock of feed stored there for the winter.

Furious, Davezac harnessed one of the camels to a threshing machine and worked him for six hours straight.

Things are more serene now, however. Davezac has named the dromedaries "Treto" and "Hogar," and even Mme. Davezac, at first as hostile as the cows, is reconciled to the presence of such exotic barnyard residents.

They peep through the door at her when she's at work in the kitchen, and all the neighbors want to have their pictures taken with the camels.

Davezac has straightened out their diet—fresh water every five days in the summer, once a month in the winter; 10 pounds of barley apiece morning and night plus all the hay, straw, thistles and alfalfa they can eat.

But there's always next year to be uneasy about. Santamaria's last letter said he is going to send a giraffe.

Behind Glass

LEXINGTON, Va. (E)—Mr. and Mrs. Moore Harper of Kerr's Creek have watched with fascination the building of a huge hornet's nest without danger to themselves. The hornets built the nest just outside a window of their home. The window remains closed.

Circulation of Swedish daily newspapers is 3,588,600, an increase of 70,900 in a year.

Caution, Calmness, Reason

President Eisenhower is fond of describing himself as a "middle of the road." Generally that is thought of as placing a man midway between extremes of left and right in the political spectrum. But the president is giving the term wider and deeper meaning.

He is applying it to mean an avoidance of extremes in many fields. He is ranging himself on the side of caution, calmness and reason. He is doing this with such persistence that it makes a clear pattern of presidential performance.

Joseph C. Harsch of the Christian Science Monitor recently pointed out six specific instances, gleaned from two presidential press conferences, which reveal this pattern.

Mr. Eisenhower was against our cutting off diplomatic relations with Russia or pulling out of the UN. He thought it foolish to say we would "never" recognize Red China, since "never" is a pretty strong word. He suggested we ought to think of our allies as partners rather than merely followers of our leadership. He opposed the idea of "preventive war." And he said the Indo-China truce might open the way for a better free world structure with which to block spreading communism.

As Harsch noted, none of these positions is popular, nor easy to defend. It is much easier to say we should snub Russia, cut Red China dead, rattle the saber, and "get America out of the UN and the UN out of America," as the patriotic sloganeers like to put it.

Most politicians, and particularly demagogues, would feel compelled to take the easy path. Some demagogues like to suggest that when they wave the flag and shout patriotic slogans they are somehow engaged in a difficult, thankless enterprise. In fact, what they are doing is the easiest thing any politician could possibly do.

It is much harder to do what Mr. Eisenhower is doing: take a position in which the self-interest of the United States is not so obvious, a position which measures the country's gain or loss over a long term.

Perhaps, as Harsch indicates, only a man occupying the White House, with its vast power and prestige, could dare to look beyond the obvious and to consider more than the immediate political advantage.

But if that be so, there still is no law compelling a president to stress reason, caution, and the larger considerations of national welfare. We must be thankful Mr. Eisenhower chooses to, and hope that his example is followed by men who alone could not dare such a course.

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — This is Hollywood, Mrs. Jones:

Where time never goes by. Those clocks in film scenes are never wound. The ticking would interfere with perfect dialogue recording. . . . When there are only two seasons — summertime and option time. . . . Where Jeanette MacDonald, during World War II, wore a star on a charm bracelet for her Newfoundland dog that went to war. . . . Where you sometimes think there are more sound stages than sound minds. . . . Where keeping their wives in the bluebook keeps some of the citizens in the red.

This is Hollywood, Mrs. Jones, where old-fashioned stage-coaches have vanity mirrors out of camera range — so glamor dolls can powder their noses. . . . Where MGM once changed the title of a picture from "Happily Married" to "Happily Buried." . . . Talking about a scene for a picture, Michael Curtiz, the Hungarian-born director, said:

"It's so exciting, it makes your blood curl."

Where a tailor on Vine Street calls his shop a "valetaria."

This is Hollywood, Mrs. Jones, where:

The screams for leading ladies in horror pictures usually are provided by professional screamers — at $25 per scream. . . . The first Hollywood city ordinance forbade more than 2000 sheep being driven down Hollywood Blvd. at one time. . . . Where a sign in a Hollywood jewelry store window reads:

"Wear a fraternity pin — a sign of distinction. Easy credit."

Where this sign appears in a beer parlor:

"The wife can't be any madder. Stay awhile and have a few more drinks."

This is Hollywood, Mrs. Jones, where Tom Collins, a Hollywood bit player, is married to a girl named Ginger Ayle. . . . Where pictures run in cycles and producers run in circles. . . . Where a painting in Mickey Rooney's den depicts Greta Garbo as a fan dancer.

Where a "B" producer calls his home "Sleeve's End." Everything in it is on the cuff. . . . Where more than 800 registered "doubles" rent parts of their bodies, or all of it, to the movies. Their legs, hands and feet double in close-ups for stars, and others perform difficult stunts. . . . Where trees are tailor-made. The prop department nails strips of bark to forms of any shape or size.

This is Hollywood, Mrs. Jones, where the late Fannie Brice insisted on having her name spelled "Fannie" in billing, but signed all her personal letters "Fanny."

Where department stores have special shopping rooms for stars — so they won't be mobbed by tourists.

Where there are more cat and dog hospitals than hospitals for humans. . . . The average screen fight, lasting two and a half minutes, takes 12 hours to film.

Where the first actor to play a dual role in a movie was veteran star Jack Mulhall. The picture was "Pat and Mike." He played a policeman named Pat and a gangster named Mike. . . . Where artificial rain on a movie set is sometimes part milk — to make it photograph better.

This is Hollywood, Mrs. Jones, where:

Of the 167 trained dogs used in movies and TV, only three are thoroughbreds. Mixed breeds are the most intelligent for movie work. . . . Where party giver No. 1 Elsa Maxwell leased her expensively furnished Beverly Hills home to actor John Loder on one condition — that he wouldn't give any parties.

Where Spanish explorer Gaspar de Portola was the first white man to see the area now called "Hollywood." The year was 1769, and when his expedition reached Calhoun Pass his men engaged in a knife battle with Indians, setting quite a stir.

Where Binnie Barnes was once asked if she could remember her first stage role.

"I don't remember exactly," she said, "but I think I played a potted palm."

Where a boss, speaking to a group of women attending a convention of the National Secretaries Association, advised them that they should occasionally ask the boss: "Is there anything more I should be doing?"

I would have been better advised if he had told them to ask themselves that question — instead of putting it to the boss — and if the word "could" had been substituted for "should."

NEW YORK—Texas has repulsed the CIO and the "pressure groups" of New York which are trying to win control of the government of the whole nation and the several states by stealth. However, Governor Allan Shivers, elected for a third term last Saturday, has not conquered the invaders. They will now gather themselves for further campaigns in the offing. The CIO is the known aggressor here, but, as in the insurrections in Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and California in the mid-thirties, the Communists and the New York forces which oppose "narrow nationalism" with clandestine slush-funds and hate-campaigns, are mighty allies.

Texas and other Southern states took a malicious delight in the news and newscasts of union terror in Michigan when their late patron and almoner in the White House was dragging millions of workers into the original CIO under John L. Lewis. The Southern Democrats, including the rich ones, simply could not imagine such a situation in their own country. They thought they were braver than the executives of the soulless Yankee corporations. They thought the wage earners of the land called Dixie would kill, if necessary, to maintain their freedom from the discipline of unions having aloof, impersonal executive centers in Washington in close alliance with the Democratic party.

Meanwhile, however, Texas and the rest of Dixie were being corrupted by the very party which was operating the terror in the North. Mississippi was drawing more money out of the federal treasury than she was contributing as taxes. Congressman John Rankin, a ferocious Red-baiter who hated most New York Congressmen and gloried in their hatred, was nevertheless a diligent New Dealer because the New Deal was lavish to Mississippi. Tom Clark, now on the Supreme Court and invoking his immunity when Congress would question him about his conduct as Attorney General; Tom Connally; Sam Rayburn and John Garner have been prominent figures in the revolution which now threatens their Texas with the bloodshed and loss of sovereignty which befell Michigan.

For example, early in the game, Roosevelt went to Galveston on a man-of-war and his son, Elliott, then in the Fort Worth phase of his impudent and profitable career, delivered him to two big social parties. This was a triumph not only for Elliott but for certain rich and thoroughly unscrupulous Texas millionaires who were relieved of prosecution in developments which unfolded gradually and almost imperceptibly. Of late some of these individuals have taken up philanthropy to the clamor of national publicity although a little research in the newspaper morgues would yield interesting background.

The propaganda depicting the typical Texan as a four-flushing patriotic braggart, inferior to the "international" intellectual New Yorker, is not just a spontaneous expression of popular opinion recently arrived at. It is hate-stuff designed and propagated to prepare Texas and the rest of the country for a drastic change.

But the conquest of the press, radio and political expression has gone so far that the Texans can't even identify their distant enemies. Texas is the victim of a hate-campaign but she helped to create her own ordeal by her selfish, thoughtless collaboration with the Roosevelt-Truman regime.

There has been a great deal of violence across the South as the new industrial era emerged from the agricultural past. It is carelessly assumed that practically all of this new "industry" fled from the North. Some of it did. Northern opportunists saw many advantages down South. There was a climate free of the cruelty of the Northern winters. Factories could be spotted close to small farm cities and manned with workers rather hostile to unions and eager for wages which were to them very liberal and additional to their farm incomes.

But the "industry" of this new South is largely new and original. It never existed anywhere else. The oil, gas, sulphur and derivative activities did not run away from New England. The great ports of New Orleans and Houston and the tremendous manufacturing centers around them are legitimate southern phenomena.

The unions have seen their opportunity and hopped to it. A little killing and non-fatal shooting and bombing are trivial incidents in the conquest of such a new field. Like the Yankee, however, the actual wage-earner in this new South is not shrewd enough to discern the hidden hand and the ultimate purpose of those who fan hatred in his heart, post him on picket lines under professional galleiters imported from New York, and present him with raises which he would have received anyway as natural development, if perhaps a little later.

The invasion of other states by New York letterhead fronts which use slush funds to destroy Congressmen, Senators and Governors who are opposed to almost unrestricted immigration, to federal "education," to Communism and the United Nations is a new development. The scheme is clever and the machines are small, agile and efficient. If successful, the plot would place the power of government, national and state, in the hands of puppets beholden to unseen, unknown individuals operating from New York offices and deluxe apartments.

The Doctor Says:

Baby's Pet Objects OK in Bed, If They're Not Alive

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

Small children appear to get comfort from sleeping with a stuffed animal or some other object of affection but it is probably best for the object not to be alive!

Q—I have a nephew and niece nine and seven years old who take the cat to bed with them every night. Do you think it is safe for a child to sleep with a dog or cat?

Mrs. M. C.

A—Cats and dogs can carry some diseases which children can acquire. I believe it is much better for children not to sleep with a cat or dog for this reason even if there were no others.

Q—Our baby was born with an incomplete enclosure of the spine called spina bifida. Will you discuss this?

Mrs. G.

A—This falls in the class of what are called congenital defects or inborn abnormalities. In mild cases the defect can sometimes be repaired by surgery but in severe ones little or nothing can be done and the outlook for life is not too good.

Q—My six-year-old son has one undescended testicle. Our doctor gave him injections last summer without success. Now he recommends an operation. What do you think?

M. M.

A—The injections of hormones commonly used in the attempt to bring down an undescended testicle are successful in only about one-quarter of the cases. When this fails an operation before the time of puberty (about 12) is considered advisable. In those cases where both testicles are undescended treatment is of even more importance, and should be undertaken early. There is some debate as to just what age is best but probably somewhere between three and five is about right.

Q—My two-and-one-half-year-old daughter developed a rapid heart when she was two months old. It sometimes beats as fast as 280 beats per minute. She appears to be healthy and eats well. What do you think her chances are?

Mrs. C. T.

A—You do not say whether your little daughter's heart continues to beat as rapidly as it did when she was two months old. Certainly she should be observed by a physician but what causes the extreme rapidity of the heart rate is rather puzzling. If she no longer has this one would expect her chances for health to be good.

Q—In discussing children who grate their teeth you did not mention worms as a possible cause. In my daughter's case this happened.

Mrs. A. T.

A—I see no reason why this might not be added to the list of possible causes of nervousness in children who grate their teeth.

Q—My 10-year-old daughter has developed an inferiority complex because of the excessive dark hair on her arms. She says the boys tease her about it.

Mrs. J. K.

A—At that age I should think that bleaching the hair would be best and helping your daughter to ignore the taunts of the little boys who are likely to continue if they feel it gets her goat.

Q—I am terribly concerned because my daughter of five eats nothing and has not eaten anything worthy of note for the past three years. She is healthy looking and weighs about 41 pounds. I am most worried about it.

A—Both the little girl's healthy appearance and her weight would suggest that she is eating better than you think she is. Her healthfulness and your concern about her eating are hard to reconcile. Perhaps the problem will be solved for both of you when she goes to school or kindergarten.

Q—I have a nephew and niece nine and seven years old who take the cat to bed with them every night. Do you think it is safe for a child to sleep with a dog or cat?

Attlee Tells Highlights Of Trip Behind Curtain

Finds China Tolerant, Making Great Strides

HONG KONG (AP)—Former Prime Minister Clement Attlee disclosed today he countered appeals by Red Chinese boss Mao Tze-tung that he try to engineer a shift in U.S. foreign policy by suggesting Mao urge Russia to mend her ways.

Attlee—just arrived with seven other touring British laborites from an 18-day visit behind the Bamboo Curtain and three days in Moscow—revealed for the first time details of his talk with Mao.

He said when Mao urged that British Laborite leaders try to influence the United States to pull out of the Formosa Straits and cease rearming Japan and West Germany, he suggested in turn absorbing businesses, industry and farms.

"There is less rigidity in China than in Russia," he declared.

Aneurin Bevan and six other members of the party left by plane to visit Tokyo today. Attlee will remain here until Saturday, then fly to Singapore and Australia.

that the Communist boss use his influence with the Kremlin to try to make Russia:

1. Give her people more freedom.
2. Ease restrictions on her satellite states.
3. Stop trying to undermine other governments.
4. Reduce Soviet armaments.

Attlee said neither he nor Mao made any promises regarding the other's proposals.

Chinese Tolerant

Commenting on his tour, Attlee said he had found Chinese communism more tolerant than the Soviet variety. He said the Chinese Reds are slower and more careful in Communist party on principles on which we do not agree," he said. "We tried to understand their point of view and we drew certain conclusions. One was that the Communists are making great reforms in China and this is a new departure in a government in that nation. "We found the government incorruptible," he added. "We were impressed with the remarkable work in public health and especially with their anti-fly campaign."

He said China was the one Asian country where he saw no flies in the market place.

No Pretense

He said China's Red leaders face an immense task and, in contrast to the Russians, they make no pretense about it.

"They admit they have a great deal to do yet and that there are many shortcomings," he said. "In Russia they tell you the whole world is inferior to Russia and things Russian are the best. I heard no such boasting in China."

Work in public housing and education impressed Attlee, especially efforts made to educate the peasants. But he said he was disturbed by the enormous pressure of Red China's vast population on her limited land and resources.

Communist feeling about the Nationalist Chinese bastion of Formosa is strong, he said.

No Peace Talk

He said that when Red China's leaders discussed Formosa, they dropped their talk of peace. He said they had found nobody in Red China who advocated a peaceful settlement of the Formosa question—unless it be a peaceful surrender by Chiang Kai-shek's forces.

He said he did not specifically take up the question of American prisoners in China, but that in a general discussion he had argued that it was a mistake to hold people against their will.

Divorced Bride Shot, Killed by Former Husband

CHICAGO (AP)—A 20-year-old bride of six weeks who became a divorcee three weeks later died in County Hospital Wednesday of wounds which police say were in-fllicted by her former husband. The victim was Tomas Rodriguez. Police said the woman was shot by her former husband, Marcus S. Garcia, 27.

Police said Garcia at the same time also wounded his former mother-in-law, Mrs. Catalina Caseres, 38, while the two women were walking through Wicker Park. Garcia then shot himself in the

Bride of Neil C. Montanus Wears Ballerina Gown

Residing in Rochester, New York, where the bridegroom is with Eastman Kodak Co., will be newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Crawford Montanus who were wed Sunday, Aug. 29. The bride is the former Audrey Kathleen Mathews, daughter of Mrs. Lena Shaeffer, Prophetstown, and her bridegroom, formerly of Dixon, is the son of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Montanus, Morris, Ill. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Montanus in the First Presbyterian church, Morris.

Preceding the ceremony, a vocal quartet composed of Mark, Lee, Eugene, and Rev. Montanus sang "A Wedding Prayer." Delight Montanus, only sister of the bridegroom, sang "Because," and "If I Could Tell You." Mrs. H. C. Montanus played the organ.

For the 5 p. m. ceremony, the bride chose a ballerina length gown of sapphire blue crystallette, fashioned with softly draped bodice, empire waist and bouffant skirt. Her shoulder length veil was caught by a pearl-embroidered Juliet cap of the same color as her dress and slippers. She carried a white orchid and ivy bouquet.

Bride's Attendant
A former college roommate of the bride, Mrs. Stanwood Charters Griffith, Ashton, was the only attendant. She wore a frosted garnet gown identical in design and fabric to that of the bride. Her Juliet cap was trimmed with white pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Mark Montanus, Sycamore, was best man for his brother.
The bride's mother wore a two-piece navy dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Moeller, Rt. 2, Dixon, was the setting for the pretty late summer wedding of Miss Mary Anne Davis, daughter of Mrs. George Hobbs, Dixon, and Alvin E. Moeller, son of the Moellers.

Summer garden flowers decorated the home for the Aug. 30, wedding. Rev. Donald Littlejohn of the First Christian church, Dixon, performed the 10:30 a. m. double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a street length frock of white nylon. Her accessories were white and her corsage, pink gladioli.

John H. Moeller served his brother as best man.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink nylon dress with brown accessories.

Wedding Dinner
Following the ceremony, a dinner was served by Mrs. Clara Hess, Rock Falls, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Verner Gloden, Nelson. The table, decorated with white carnations, made an attractive setting for the wedding cake baked by the bridegroom's mother. The cake was served on a cake plate that belonged to the bridegroom's grandmother, the late Mrs. Carrie Moeller.

The newlyweds departed for a short wedding trip and will be at home in their new residence on Rt. 2.

The bride graduated from Dixon high school with the class of 1954. A 1946 graduate of Dixon high school, the bridegroom is employed by the Chicago and Northwestern railroad. He spent two years in the U. S. Army with overseas duty in Germany.

Ike Signs New Social Security Bill

FRASER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower signed into law Wednesday legislation expanding social security coverage to 10 million additional Americans and liberalizing other benefits.

He hailed the measure as "one of the cornerstones to build a better and stronger America" and outlined four important provisions:

1. It raises payments to all retired workers by at least $5 a month. The average is expected to go up to about $57 monthly, $5 more than at present.
2. It eliminates the four or five lowest years of earnings from the computation of checks for workers who retire in the future.
3. Retired workers may earn up to $1,200 a year without forfeiting checks.
4. The act preserves the benefits rights, under old age and survivors insurance, of those workers regularly covered under the program who become totally disabled for long and indefinite periods.

The Senate in declining to accept invitations to testify about his financial and other operations before a subcommittee which filed a report in 1952 raising numerous questions about them. Williams contended Wednesday that subcommittee had no authority for the kind of investigation it conducted, so the charges should be thrown out. They were allowed to stand.

2. McCarthy used "vulgar, base language" against fellow senators. Associated Press reporter B. L. Livingstone testified that during an interview in the recent McCarthy Army hearings McCarthy remarked that "they should get a man with a net" and take Flanders "to a good quiet place."

Reporter Testifies

Another AP reporter, Joseph W. Hall, testified that on Jan. 2, 1953, McCarthy described Sen. Hendrickson (R-NJ), a member of the subcommittee that looked into his financial affairs, as "a living miracle in that he is without question the only man in the world who has lived so long with neither brains nor guts." Williams did not question the accuracy of either quotation but indicated by questions that Flanders and Hendrickson had spoken harshly of McCarthy.

The AP reporters were subpoenaed by the committee.

3. The Wisconsin senator abused a decorated war hero, Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, at a hearing in New York last February. The committee counsel, E. Wallace Chadwick, read Zwicker's Army record, containing citations for gallantry in action and praise by his superiors. Chadwick also read a transcript of the February hearing in which McCarthy implied Zwicker was "not fit to wear that uniform."

Legion Raps Post-Discharge Court-Martial

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Legion has renewed its objection to court-martialing a Pittsburgh ex-serviceman accused of slaying a South Korean and arrested after his discharge from the Air Force.

A spokesman said the Legion's national judge advocate is preparing a brief to the Supreme Court on behalf of former airman Robert Toth. The action follows a convention mandate of 1953, which was reaffirmed Wednesday.

Toth, a steelworker, is charged in connection with the killing of a South Korean civilian caught prowling in a restricted area near Pusan in September, 1952. Toth was honorably discharged later that year, but picked up at Pittsburgh the following May and flown back to Korea for court-martial.

He subsequently was returned to this country and his lawyers began a test of whether the Air Force could seize a civilian in such circumstances.

The U. S. Court of Appeals ruled last March that former servicemen may be tried by military tribunals for grave offenses committed before their discharge. Toth is taking that decision to the Supreme Court.

The Legion contends such action against veterans constitutes a threat to civil rights.

Two others still in the service when arrested have been convicted in the slaying. Airman Thomas L. Kinder, on guard duty with Toth, was finally sentenced to two years but then restored to duty. Second Lt. George Schreiber of Hollywood, Ill., received a five-year sentence.

Two Divorce Actions Filed

Two divorce suits were filed with Circuit Clerk John Shaulis Wednesday afternoon.

Amie B. Johnson, rural route, Dixon, charges desertion in her complaint filed against her husband, Ous. The Johnsons were married Nov. 12, 1945, and separated March 1, 1951, according to the complaint. The complaint states that the defendant was residing in Chicago at last report.

An Amboy couple, who have been residing in the same home, although estranged, figured in the other suit. Mrs. Dorothy M. Hull charges "extreme and repeated cruelty" in her complaint against her husband, William.

The complaint sets forth that the couple was married in April 1925, and separated in July of 1949. Although separated, both have been residing in the same dwelling in Amboy, the complaint says. They occupied separate parts of the home, the plaintiff states. Mrs. Hull seeks alimony.

Unionist Pleads Not Guilty on Tax Evasion

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Guy Harmon, 58, Peoria union business agent who pleaded innocent Wednesday to an August indictment alleging he evaded a total of $4,181 in income taxes due in the years 1948-51. He was accused in July of violating the federal Anti-Racketeering Act, and pleaded innocent.

Local 649 of AFL Operating Engineers in Peoria gave Harmon a leave of absence. In a statement Wednesday, the local's headquarters said he would be on leave "without pay until he is proven innocent."

December Trial

T. L. Salzer, the union office manager, said Harmon would regain his job with back pay if he establishes his innocence. The U. S. attorney's office in Springfield said Harmon probably would not come to trial before December. He is free on a total of $15,000 bond.

Business agents of AFL unions in Galesburg and Quincy pleaded innocent Wednesday to labor racketeering indictments.

Trial for Edwin H. Snyder of Teamsters Local 80 at Quincy and Edward J. Pavlat of Teamsters Local 15 at Galesburg was set for Oct. 6. Defense and federal attorneys estimated trial would take from three to five days. The trial will be without jury, the attorneys agreed, before U. S. Judge Charles G. Briggie.

Accused of Payoffs

Pavlat and Snyder were accused in July along with Harmon and William R. Watkins of Jacksonville of violating the anti-racketeering act by forcing payoffs by a contractor under threats of work stoppages, unlawful strikes and slowdowns. Watkins also pleaded innocent.

A federal grand jury later indicted Virgil Floyd of Teamsters local 179, Joliet and Harry Meisenhelter of Decatur's Common Laborer's Local on similar charges. Meisenhelter and Floyd are scheduled for arraignment Sept. 7, Floyd in Peoria.

Legion Votes Against Move To Bar A-Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Legion voted today to fight vigorously against any move to bar the use of atomic weapons or to come to any agreement with the Russians on atomic matters at this time.

At the same time, legionnaires winding up their 36th annual convention called on the nation to build up its air strength—particularly its air arm—and getting going at once on an effective and expanded civil defense program.

The legion also called for adoption of a universal military training law that would require at least 16 weeks of military training for all young Americans. Some legionnaires said they wanted to make the requirement six months.

The convention said Russia has repeatedly shown it is morally depraved and will not abide by any solemn agreements.

To Register for Retarded School Work Not Completed But Classes Will Be Held

The North Central Illinois Association for the Aid of Retarded Children, Inc., Dixon, has announced that the retarded children's school will have registration on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 7 and 8. The school is located at the corner of Lincoln Avenue and Third Street. Those from 5 through 17 will register mornings and those 9 or more will register in the afternoons.

If sufficient numbers of the older group register every effort will be made to provide training for them also. At the present time applications have been received and approved for two classes.

Mrs. Lee Lambert, Nachusa, and Mrs. William Kramer, Dixon, have been engaged as teachers. This will make Mrs. Kramer's second year with the school. Mrs. Lambert has taught in the lower grades for the past 25 years. Both have standard teachers certificates in addition to other training and experience which qualifies them for this type of training.

Many family physicians and many teachers are referring parents to the school for training for their children, the NCAARC said.

Due to the majority of the work having been done by volunteer workers the remodeling of the building has not been completed. However, classes will start in the portion that is finished and the balance of the building will be completed within a very short time. Volunteer help for clean-up, painting, plumbing, carpentering and every type of labor is needed. Someone is at the building every day from 9 to 4 and from 7 to 9:30 each evening.

Additional information can be obtained by calling or writing the association at 718 E. Morgan St., Dixon, or phone 2-9911 before 8:30 a.m., any day.

Sen. Carlson Raps Adlai on T-H Comments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Carlson (R-Kan.) said today Adlai E. Stevenson was "either incredibly misinformed or politically vicious" in attributing to the Eisenhower administration failure to revise the Taft-Hartley Act this year.

Carlson said the 1952 Democratic presidential candidate "should have read the record on Taft-Hartley," and he continued in an interview:

"If he had, he would learn that every single Democrat in the Senate on May 7 voted to send the revision bill back to the Labor Committee, where they knew it would die on the vine."

Stevenson said in a Chicago speech last Monday that "politics dropped to a low plane, indeed, in connection with this matter of revising the Taft-Hartley Act." He declared the White House had "produced some reasonable proposals" for changing the basic labor-management law but "then withdrew them under . . . obvious pressure."

Carlson said it was true that "politics dropped to a low plane," but he blamed the Democrats for putting it there.

Guard Generals Awarded Equal Federal Rank

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Federal honors were announced today by Gov. Stratton for Brig. Gen. Joseph C. Hodgkin of Peoria and John F. Hornfield of Urbana, commander and assistant commander of the 33rd National Guard Infantry Division.

Maj. Gen. Edgard C. Erickson, chief of the National Guard Bureau, sent word the two were now generals of the line, a title that makes their federal rank equal to their National Guard status and distinguishes them as combat generals.

Stratton appointed Hodgkin and Hornfield early this year when he reorganized the Guard over the protests of some Guard officers.

Republicans Concede Little to Democrats

Western Leaders Publicly Confident Over Prospects

Editor's Note—This is the first of two articles reporting the claims of Republican leaders in 26 key states on how their party will fare in the November election battle for control of Congress.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Republican leaders exuded confidence today that the GOP will more than hold its own in the western half of the country in the battle for control of Congress.

Through their public statements, however, ran some dark threads of doubt about the farmers' reaction to the Eisenhower administration's flexible price support program and fears of possible party losses in depressed employment areas.

In interviews with Associated Press reporters, organization leaders attending the Republican National Committee campaign strategy conference which ended Wednesday claimed a net gain of 17 house and 5 Senate seats in 14 key Midwestern, Rocky Mountain and Far Western states.

The present Senate lineup is 48 Republicans, 46 Democrats, 1 independent and 1 vacancy. In the House, there are 218 Republicans, 213 Democrats, 1 independent and 3 vacancies.

Concede No Losses
No GOP National Committee member or state chairman was willing to concede publicly any losses to the Democrats, although Vice President Nixon said frankly such results were possible in areas where unemployment is high.

Michigan was mentioned as among such areas and John Feikens, state GOP chairman, said this factor must be taken into account. He said economic conditions in October might determine the Michigan outcome in November elections.

"The economic situation in Michigan is tight," he said. "We Republicans think it will improve before the election and that it may prove the determining factor."

Sen. Homer Ferguson, Republican, is opposing Democrat Patrick McNamara for the Senate and Republican Don Leonard, former state police commissioner, is battling Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams, seeking re-election.

"Fighting Chance"
Feikens said he thinks Republicans have a "fighting chance" to gain one seat in the House.

John H. Rouse, executive secretary of the Republican party of Wisconsin, predicted a third term for GOP Gov. Walter Kohler and a gain of one or two seats in the party's congressional delegation.

In Minnesota, Republicans are bucking a tough, adroit campaigner in Democratic Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey. But State Chairman Gordon Yock said he expects Val Bjornson to win the GOP senatorial nomination in a Sept. 14 primary and take Humphrey in November.

F. Peavey Heffelfinger of Minnesota, the party's national finance chairman, thought the outcome may be determined to a great extent by farmer reaction to the Eisenhower administration's farm program. Humphrey has been a vigorous backer of rigid, high-level price supports.

Yock predicted Minnesota Republicans will hold their five present congressional seats and win two of the four now held by Democrats.

Morton H. Hollingsworth, Illinois GOP chairman, expressed confidence Republican Joseph T. Meek, lately given a political pat on the back by President Eisenhower, will defeat Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas in November. But Hollingsworth's outward confidence evidently was not fully shared by some Republican campaigners.

Hollingsworth said Republicans have a chance of upsetting Democrats in three House races, in the 2nd, 9th and 21st districts.

There have been reports Republicans are in trouble in Colorado, but GOP State Chairman Charles A. Haskell couldn't see it that way. He predicted a Republican sweep in contests for senator, governor and four House seats. Democrats now hold two of the latter and the senatorial post.

Ralph S. Linn, state chairman, and Mrs. Kathryn K. Meloney, national committeewoman, said they think Republicans are going to keep the Wyoming Senate seat they gained with the death of Democratic Sen. Lester Hunt and his replacement by Republican Sen. E. D. Crippa.

Happy Over Taylor

Mrs. Gifford Mayes, national committeewoman, said Idaho Republicans are happy the Democrats nominated former Sen. Glen Taylor to run against Republican Sen. Henry Dworshak. Taylor was Henry A. Wallace's vice-presidential running mate on the Progressive party ticket in 1948.

Mrs. Mayes said Dworshak is "running scared" but she thinks he will win. She predicted the Republicans will pick up one House seat.

Montana Republicans are banking on Rep. Wesley A. D'Ewart of the 2nd District to unseat Democratic Sen. James E. Murray. Fred Robinson of Malta said he is also "hopeful" the Republicans can win the Congress seat now held by Democrat Lee Metcalf.

The farm price support question is a major issue in his state, Robinson reported. He added that strikes at Anaconda copper mines in the southwest section of the state might influence the election. Despite an intensive drive by Democrats, Republicans expect South Dakota to stay in the GOP column.

"If we don't, the party will be in trouble all over," asserted Axel J. Beck of Elk Point, national Republican committeeman.

See Mundt Victor

He predicted Sen. Karl E. Mundt, GOP incumbent who presided at the Army-McCarthy hearings, will win by at least 40,000 votes over Kenneth Houn of Groton, the Democratic nominee. Mundt has said he will ask the next Congress to reinstate high-level, rigid farm price supports.

Jess J. Gard, Oregon national committeeman, said Republican Sen. Guy Cordon faces a "stiff fight" to ward off the Democratic challenge of Richard L. Neuberger in the Senate race there.

He said public vs. private power is one of the big issues.

State Chairman Thomas W. Caldecott predicted California will return Republican Thomas H. Kuchel to the Senate and elect GOP Gov. Goodwin Knight. He said his party may pick up two seats in the House.

State Chairman M. B. Johns

credited GOP Gov. Ed Mcchem with "an excellent chance" of defeating Democratic Sen. Clinton P. Anderson in New Mexico. Johns predicted the election of a new Republican governor and said there is a chance for the GOP to oust the state's two Democratic congressmen-at-large.

See Upset of Kerr

If there are any upsets in senatorial races, State Chairman Douglas McKeever said, he thinks the Republicans might pull one in Oklahoma, which Eisenhower carried in 1952.

He said that Democratic Sen. Robert S. Kerr was renominated in a bitter fight and the GOP is counting on Democratic defections to help their candidate, Fred N. Mock. Kerr has been in the vanguard of Democratic critics of the Eisenhower administration's farm program.

B. T. Mattingly, Missouri Republican finance chairman, predicted the GOP will hold its four seats in Congress and may add one or two at the expense of the Democrats, who hold seven.

Yanks Win, Can't Be Counted Out

NEW YORK (AP)—"Yesterday we were out of business; today we're back in it."

Manager Casey Stengel was in an expansive mood after the New York Yankees' 4-1 "must" victory over Cleveland Wednesday that sliced the Indians' first-place margin over the defending champions to 4 1/2 games.

"It was a game we had to win," said Stengel. "and just as we've been doing for six years, we won it. That's why you can't count us out yet. Never sell the Yankees short until they are mathematically eliminated."

"The other guys don't have it wrapped up yet. They just think they have."

"But I know one thing. We can't afford to lose any more."

Cleveland Manager Al Lopez accepted the defeat philosophically.

"I feel the same way about it now as I did Tuesday night," he said. "I still think that was the big one for us. No matter what happens Thursday, we'll still leave here with a pretty comfortable lead."

The Yankee battery of southpaw Ed Lopat and catcher Yogi Berra was the "whole" club Wednesday. Lopat spaced nine hits for his 12th victory of the year and his 40th lifetime win over the Indians. Berra laced three of the Yanks hits, including his 18th home run, scored twice and drove in two runs.

Spahn Wins 17th; Braves Pick Up Game

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Warren Spahn, whose sensational return to form in midseason made the National League pennant race a three-team affair, still is firing away with amazing precision although time probably has run out for his Milwaukee Braves.

After a mediocre spring and early summer during which he lost 10 games, Spahn hit his winning stride July 18. He won his ninth game that day, beating Pittsburgh. Wednesday night, against St. Louis, he won his 17th. In between he's gone unbeaten.

With 25 games left, a minimum of five more starts for the 32-year-old left-hander, Spahn stands a good chance of winning at least 20 games for the sixth time.

He won 23 while losing only 7 a year ago, the best of his nine seasons with the Braves. He also won more than 20 in 1947 and from 1949 through 1951.

Spahn's 3-1 victory over the Pirates moved the Braves within 6 1/2 lengths of the first-place New York Giants and within 3 of second-place Brooklyn.

Cincinnati beat the Giants 9-7 in a game played under protest from the third inning on by the New Yorkers. Chicago defeated Brooklyn 9-5 for its seventh straight triumph.

Philadelphia replaced St. Louis.

in fifth place with a 512 victory over the Cardinals.

The Chicago White Sox split at Boston, losing the day game 7-2 and winning the night game 6-3. Washington defeated Detroit 4-0. Baltimore and Philadelphia were n's scheduled.

The Braves scored one run on three hits and two runs on one hit in beating Pittsburgh. Three first-inning singles produced the first run. The other two came on Andy Pafko's single, a two-base error by Curt Roberts, a sacrifice and a wild pitch.

The Dodgers committed four errors in losing to the Cubs, and their pitching was shaky. In the sixth inning the Cubs combined three hits with the three errors for four runs.

The Giants used seven pitchers in a vain effort to halt the Redlegs. Ted Kluszcwski led the 13-hit Cincinnati assault with four singles and drove in three runs.

Third base umpire Frank Secory nullified a play in the Cincinnati third when Johnny Temple of the Redlegs was called out after stealing home. Secory said he had called time before the play. Manager Leo Durocher immediately declared he would finish the game under protest.

A grand-slam home run by Del Ennis in the first inning paved the way for the Phillies' victory in St. Louis.

Johnny Schmitz won his ninth game and pitched his second shut-out in blanking Detroit on seven hits.

Reserve outfielder Karl Olson and rookie pitcher Tom Hurd were the standouts in Boston's daylight victory over Chicago. Olson drove in two runs and scored a third. Hurd, who pitched the last 4-1-3 innings and allowed only two men to reach base, received credit for his first major league victory.

Johnny Groth hit a two-run homer and walked with the bases loaded to force home a third-run in Chicago's night-game triumph.

3,000th Victory

NEW YORK (AP)—A little 38-year-old man has joined in the 3,000 winner class such turf greats as Eddie Arcaro, Johnny Longden and England's Sir Gordon Richards.

Ted Atkinson, a native of Canada, rode his 3,000th winner when he booted the Greentree Stable's Devastation to victory in the third race at Aqueduct Wednesday.

Sir Gordon's world record of 4,870 probably is beyond his reach as is Longden's American standard of about 4,400 but Ted is within striking distance of Arcaro, who has passed the 3,300 mark.

CHICAGO (AP)—Big Ten football coaches are eyeing sophomores and juggling their seasoned players in efforts to plug the gaps left by graduation of 1953 mainstays.

For instance, as pre-season practice began with two-a-day drills around the conference Wednesday, Illinois Coach Ray Eliot could count only four regulars returning from his co-championship squad.

Eliot, starting his 13th campaign as Illini grid chief, began working on the problem of replacements by giving Percy Oliver, a 200-pound sophomore from Miami, Fla., a try at right tackle and by shifting Steve Nasek from a reserve assignment

Minor Injured
Illinois' first workouts were marred as Jim Minor, second string center, suffered a recurrence of a shoulder injury that will sideline him for 10 days to two weeks.

Minnesota's new head coach, Murray Warmath, moved co-captain Jerry Heigeson from center to guard in line with his policy of "getting our best 11 men in there." Chuck Stanshorow apparently won the nod at center with his performance in spring practice.

Needs Backs
The Gophers, turning from the single wing to the split T, stepped through a light offensive drill.

Two key position changes were made at Iowa. Lou Matykiewicz was moved from quarterback, where he lettered last year to end. William Reichow was switched from the backfield to a tackle slot.

At Michigan, Coach Bennie Oosterbaan is looking for backfield replacement. He must rebuild as a result of the graduation loss of fullbacks Dick Balzuzer and Bob Hurley and halfback Ted Kress.

Despite the presence of 70 candidates, the task of rebuilding Michigan State's co-champs looked like a big one to new coach Duffy Daugherty. "There's a lot of work to be done," said Biggie Munn's successor.

The return of quarterback Jim Haluska brightened the opening day picture at Wisconsin. Haluska led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl game but sat out last season with a broken leg suffered in summer baseball.

Passing Drill
Haluska and two other quarterbacks, Jim Miller and Richard Frecka, loosened their arms in a lengthy passing drill Wednesday. Bob Vogts, whose Northwestern Wildcats didn't win a Big Ten game last fall, was happy about one thing as he assembled the group of 60 who'll try to do better this year. He said the squad was in excellent physical condition.

Zigzagging Niepokoj, a regular end, still is at a summer Marine training camp and won't join the Wildcats until Monday. At Indiana, a back injury suffered on a summer job sent Bill Takacs, sophomore halfback from Joliet, Ill., to the sidelines during the morning workout. Fullback Bill Misak, Mount Pleasant, Pa., sophomore, was excused from both drills because of tonsillitis.

23 OSU Lettermen
Purdue's Boilermakers spent their first day working in groups on fundamentals. The morning was devoted to offense; the afternoon to defensive maneuvers. Twenty-three lettermen were among the 63 candidates turning out at Ohio State. Another letterwinner, halfback Dick Young, will report upon completion of a Navy training course.

St. Pat's Wins Second Place

Score 11-3 Victory Over Methodists

Game Rings Down Curtain on '54 Church Season

St. Patrick's, scoring in all but two innings, won second place as the curtain came down on the 1954 Church Softball League season last night at Reynolds field. St. Patrick's romped past Methodist, 11-3.

Both teams had finished the regular season with 7-2 records, necessitating a playoff for the runner-up spot to league champion Grace Church.

St. Pat's opened the scoring in the first inning with three runs and added one more in the second for what proved to be the clincher.

Methodist scored once in the first and added another in the third before St. Pat's came back with another run in the fourth and three in the fifth and sixth innings. Methodist closed out its scoring with one run in the sixth.

Methodist had the longest ball hitters, in spite of the loss, as both Westfall and Fleming hit bases empty home runs. Nafziger tripled for the longest St. Patrick's hit.

Gil Contreras was the winning pitcher. He failed to strike out anyone and walked seven while giving up six hits. But he had good support behind him.

Glen Hughes, Methodist pitcher, fanned eight and walked only three but he gave up 12 hits.

Best play was made by Bill Gorham, St. Patrick's third baseman, who fielded a hard smash off the pitcher's leg to throw out Fleming at first base.

1954 Church Softball Champions

Rate Rock Island Again

Editors Note: First in a series on races in major Illinois high school football conferences.

By BILL KINNEY
Sports Editor Rock Island Argus

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP)—There's something more than vaguely familiar about the 1954 football picture in the Northwest High School Conference.

With one exception, the same old hands are back as coaches and, once again, Rock Island will field the team rivals figure they'll have to beat for the championship.

Archie Swanson of Moline is the league's only new mentor. He, too, is familiar around the Northwest circuit and has been an assistant at Moline in various capacities since 1935. Last season he was sophomore football boss with the Matrons and produced an 8-1 record.

That excellent crop of sophomores helps Swanson as he takes over from Sam Duake and produces a strong threat to the domination H. V. (Shorty) Almquist and his Rock Island Rocks have enjoyed almost without dispute for the past three years.

Rock Island shares the state's longest winning streak with East St. Louis and counts 21 victories in a row since last losing to Davenport, Iowa, on Oct. 19, 1951. The Rocks claimed undisputed Northwest Conference honors in 1952 and last year, and shared the northwest title with Kewanee in '51.

The Rocks lost 41 lettermen by graduation but still has eight left, as the nucleus for this year's effort. The balance of squad will be manned by recruits from a squad that numbers in excess of 80 varsity candidates.

Six lettermen are back with the Matrons to help Swanson improve on Moline's 6-3 mark of last season. Sixty-eight candidates seek positions with 24 seniors, 37 juniors and 7 sophs asking recognition.

East Moline, third in the league standings last year under Jack

Wrenn, lists 12 lettermen returning. Most of the experienced help is in the backfield, with little hold-over talent available for line jobs.

Jerry Nell, surprise quarterback last year at Kewanee, probably will lead the Boilermakers for duty. Galesburg, "down" with a 3-6 record last season, figures to rebound for Coach Cliff Van Dyke, who counts on ten veteran performers to deliver. Leroy Macklin has several vets returning at Canton, including John Sweetingen an experienced quarterback.

Maplewood Wins

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)—Wayne Thompson allowed but two hits and struck out 15 men Wednesday night as he pitched Maplewood, Mo., to an 8-2 victory over San Diego, Calif., in an opening round game of the Junior American Legion Little World Series.

The win sends Maplewood against Gastonia, N. C., tonight in the second round of the double elimination tournament. Gastonia beat Baltimore, 4-2 in the tourney opener Wednesday afternoon. Baltimore and San Diego also meet today.

LOST JUST ONE

The San Jose State (Calif.) has Keithball squad has lost only one letterman. Last season the Spartans lost six of their first eight men to armed services and injuries.

Golf Leaders

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—National Open champion Ed Furgol, PGA champion Chick Harbert and British Open champion Peter Thompson today led a field of 56 golfers into the opening round of the $15,000 Rubber City Open.

Twenty-one of the 29 leading PGA money winners are in the four-day, 72-hole competition for the $2,400 first prize.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)
PITCHING—Warren Spahn, Milwaukee Braves, won his 9th straight game and 17th of the season by beating Pirates 5-1.
BATTING—Don Berra, New York Yankees, collected two singles and a homer, drove in two runs as the Yankees defeated the Cleveland Indians 6-3.

Iowans Make Reservations At Pasadena

Enthusiasts Sure Hawks Will Make Trip to Rose Bowl

By L. E. SKELLEY

IOWA CITY (AP)—Many enthusiastic Iowa football fans are planning December-January vacations in and around Pasadena, Calif. These excited folk are counting upon Iowa to be the Big Ten representative in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1.

The fingering of travel brochures started late last November after Iowa came out of the pack to crush Purdue, 26-0, and Minnesota, 27-0, and forced Notre Dame, ranked No. 2 in the nation, to desperate clock-stopping measures to salvage a 14-14 tie.

Those performances zoomed Iowa into the No. 9 spot in the final Associated Press poll.

Evy Puzzled

The 1954 Notre Dame-Iowa game at Iowa City was sold out July 5 with the first mail delivery of orders — a truckload. Later some $225,000 was refunded to those who won't be among the 53,000 fortunate enough to get into the stadium.

All this Rose Bowl talk is a bit puzzling to Coach Forest Evashevski whose first two years at Iowa were so appreciated he was given a 10-year contract last December.

As of now, Evy thinks Iowa's title chances are "mighty slim."

He puts it this way: "We have lost eight of our first 14 linemen from last year. Ten of our top 22 players are gone. It would take something of a miracle as far as injuries are concerned to get Iowa where we want her to be."

The former Michigan star thinks the Big Ten race will be "closer than it has been in a long, long time. For the first time that I can remember any one of six or seven teams could win the title."

Led By Jones

"Up front is where Iowa may rise or fall this year. The Hawks 'rose' last fall because they had two slashing lines. Evy alternated, with punishing effectiveness.

Iowa is virtually certain of having a No. 1 line, led by guard Calvin Jones, close to the 1953 product. Reserves are the main and pressing problem.

There are few worries about the backfield—it is "loaded." Cap. Binky Broder, top ground gainer for Iowa and the leading conference punter in 1953, will be back for his fourth year at fullback. He figures to head a potent offense, particularly if Jerry Reichow, sophomore quarterback last fall, resumes the pace he set in spring practice.

But Evashevski shudders when he thinks of Michigan State, Montana, Michigan, Ohio State, Indiana, Wisconsin, Purdue, Minnesota and Notre Dame coming up in that order.

Arrest Trio After Flight From Illinois

JULESBURG, Colo. (AP)—Two men who officers said began a flight from Illinois in a stolen car were captured west of here late Wednesday, and are being held for questioning.

Sheriff Glen Goddard said they gave their names as Jack Lewis Markey, 21, St. Louis, Mo., and Robert Lee Sluder, 25, Terre Haute, Ind.

He said the men carried three revolvers but offered no resistance when apprehended.

Goddard quoted the men as saying they kidnapped Del Stevens of Center Line, Mich., as he slept in his auto last Sunday near O'Fallon, Ill. Then, he said, they told him they took $180 from Stevens, pushed him from the car near St. Louis and drove west in the stolen car through the Dakotas, Nebraska, Wyoming, Montana and back into Nebraska.

The hunt for the two began when an armed man entered a tavern at Chappell, Neb., 25 miles northwest of here. Witnesses said the man drew a gun, but fled to a waiting car without taking any money.

Sheriff John Glenn of Chappell and Sheriff Boyd Harris of Ogallala, Neb., with their deputies, captured the pair after a chase.

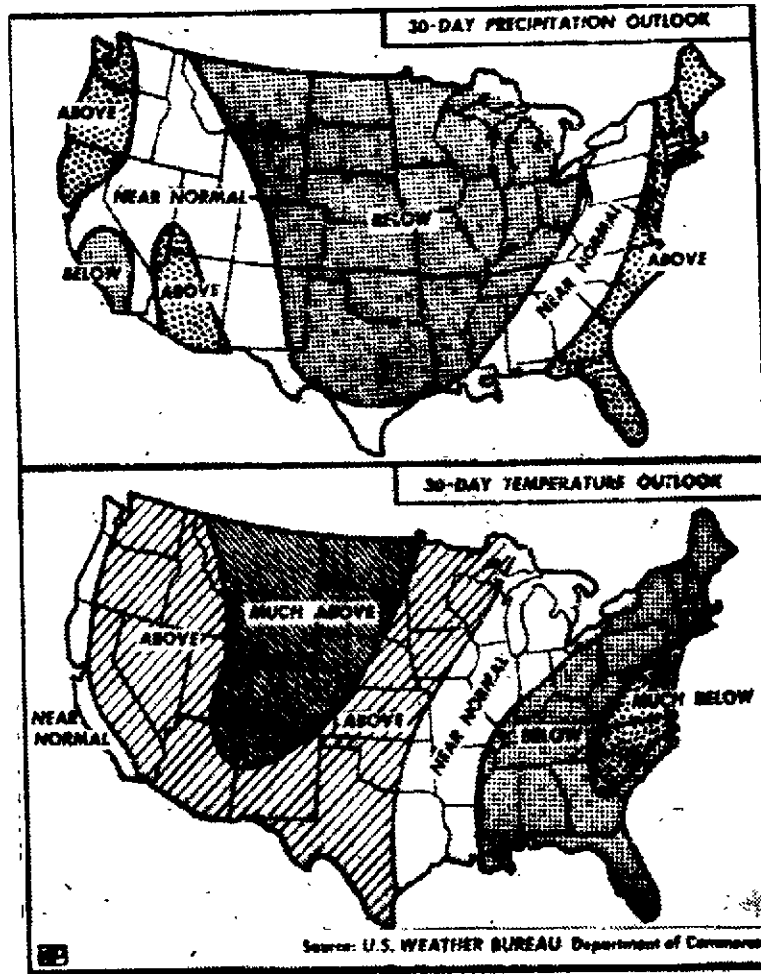

Teacher Found Dead in Hotel

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—A Pekin, Ill., schoolteacher, Miss Marie Higgins, 51, was found dead in a room at the Hotel Jefferson Wednesday.

Although the coroner's office said Miss Higgins is believed to have died from natural causes, an autopsy was ordered.

A teacher at Franklin School for five years, Miss Higgins registered at the hotel Tuesday. Investigators said her home is near New London, Iowa.

Todd School Will Close

WOODSTOCK, Ill. (AP)—An exclusive boy's school founded in this northern Illinois town more than a century ago by a young missionary out of Princeton will not open this fall.

Todd School, founded by Richard K. Todd in 1848, will shut down its sprawling one hundred acre campus because of a lack of enrollment.

Principal Roger Hill, known for years by the boys as "Skipper" because of his sailing interests, said a lack of enrollment and the loss of key faculty members forced the closure. Hill said he felt a diminished program would not be in the best tradition of the institution which boasts a long list of distinguished graduates including Orson Welles. In past years the school has had an enrollment of about 150 students.

What will become of the school is not immediately known but Hill said persons interested in establishing an educational center befitting a small college or military academy have shown interest.

Egypt Will Stand With The West

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser's military government declared today that "Egypt today stands in every respect with the West" but that a defense pact with the western powers now would only provide the Communists with fuel to stir up "the still suspicious minds of the Arabs."

A communique from the ruling revolution council that deposed King Farouk two years ago said it realized the United States and Britain would never invade the Arab world and added:

"It's (Egypt's) culture, trade and economic life is linked to the West. Ideologically Egypt is outspokenly against Communism. Militarily Egypt considers that the only possible global danger to the Middle East is an invasion from Russia."

The communique was issued to foreign correspondents as a "background paper." Apparently it was aimed at clarifying Egypt's foreign policy, which is undergoing a major swing since the British agreement on the evacuation of the Suez Canal zone and the opening of talks for American economic assistance.

Iowan Sentenced For Slaying of Ex-Wife's Lover

CHICAGO (AP)—A former Spencer, Iowa, man was sentenced to 14 years in prison Wednesday for murdering his estranged wife's sweetheart and the latter's sister.

Charles Angle, 30, previously had pleaded guilty to shooting Lloyd Veach, 29-year-old cab driver, and Kathleen Veach, 30, in their apartment April 13.

The Angles had separated a year ago and the wife, also named Kathleen, 28, told police she had intended to marry Veach when her pending divorce was granted.

The Angles have two children, Charles Jr., 6, and Floria Jean, 9.

Editors Accept J-Schools, Says Decatur Publisher

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—More and more newspaper editors are beginning to believe journalism can be taught in colleges. The Assn. for Education in Journalism was told Wednesday.

Edward E. Lindsay, president of the Lindsay-Schaub newspapers of Decatur, Ill., told the association that editors of the past century were opposed to journalism schools, while about 50 per cent now favor them.

The association is meeting in annual session here.

Lindsay said educators should be encouraged by the shift of attitude on the part of editors in new approving of journalism schools.

Philippines Want Speed On New Pact

MANILA (AP) — The Philippines today sought early action on its "Pacific charter" against Communist aggression by committees doing spade work for an eight-nation Southeast Asia security conference. President Ramon Magsaysay said he will seek adoption by the conference opening here Monday of a four-point charter pledging the eight nations to:

1. Support the rights of all peoples of Southeast Asia to freedom and independence.
2. Take steps insuring the progress of Southeast Asian nations toward self-rule and independence.
3. Work jointly for economic, social and cultural development of Southeast Asian countries to raise standards of living and to strengthen their economies and social security programs.
4. Act jointly and individually against any force that would attempt to undermine or destroy the sovereignty, territorial integrity or freedom of Southeast Asian governments.

French Premier Might Have Outfoxed Himself

Failure of EDC Brings Pressure for New Plan

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pierre Mendes-France, French premier and foreign minister, is an active man, swift and smart. He may find he was too active, too swift, and too smart.

He must take ultimate responsibility for the French Assembly's killing EDC — the European Defense Community — another name for the idea of a single European army.

Killing EDC put the Western Allies in a mess. Mendes-France may have felt this put French in a better position to bargain with them and therefore, from the French viewpoint, was shrewd business.

React Quickly
But the Allies reacted quickly:

They want out of the mess in a hurry. The solution, if they ever find one, will take months or longer. In the end the French may wish they had bought EDC in the first place.

Mendes-France showed his speed early. He was in office only a month when he got a truce with the Communists in the eight-year-old Indochina war. Then he quieted the turbulent Tunisians, long under the French thumb, by offering home rule.

Next he turned to EDC, which called for France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Luxembourg and the Netherlands to give up their national armies and pool them in a single European army under a unified command.

The United States and Britain urgently wanted EDC not only because it would unify defense against Russia on the Continent but would bring West Germany, with her manpower, into that defense as a Western military ally.

No National Army
Although this meant letting Germany rearm, her manpower would be in a single army with her neighbors. She could have no national army. The French themselves had proposed this four years ago.

They signed an agreement on it although there could be no EDC until the French Parliament and those of the other five nations approved. But in those two years no French premier until Mendes-France wanted to take a chance on a vote in Parliament.

The French politicians had developed: (A) fear of a Germany rearmament in any way; (B) fear that even though EDC was under unified command the Germans somehow would control it; and (C) a yearning to keep a French national army.

Since Russia didn't want an EDC or a rearmament Germany, the Communists in the French Parliament fought it too. Nevertheless, Mendes-France put the question up to the Assembly. The vote was no.

It might have been different if he himself had pitched for EDC or even maneuvered a delay until support for EDC could be built up. He did neither.

In letting the Assembly wreck EDC, he may have figured: Rather than face the prospect of no EDC at all, the British, under American prodding, might now be willing to join EDC, which they have so far refused to do.

If that was his reasoning, he may have been shocked by what followed:

West Germany — Still occupied by the troops of the United States, Britain and France which retain a veto over the German government — has announced its wants both independence and the right to rearm, somehow.

The British Cabinet, in an emergency meeting yesterday, decided to push for limited German armament, and Secretary of State Dulles, who called the French defeat of EDC a tragedy, said this week the Western nations owe it to West Germany to let her have sovereignty and to let her rearm to some degree.

At the moment three courses seem open:

1. France could reconsider and agree on EDC.
2. A smaller EDC — minus France but including West Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands and Italy — might be set up.
3. Or West Germany might be allowed to rearm — perhaps within agreed limits — and become the 15th member of NATO, the North

Grounded Godfrey To Receive Award For Aviation Work

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP) — Arthur Godfrey, who can't fly because his pilot's license has been suspended, was scheduled to come here today to receive an award for his contribution to aviation.

The National Aviation Trades Assn.'s regional meeting was to present the radio and television performer with a diamond-studded silver punch bowl. Engraved on the bowl is a map of Virginia with a diamond marking Godfrey's home town of Leesburg.

Godfrey's pilot's license was suspended for six months March 16 when he was charged with careless flying at Teterboro, N. J., airport Jan. 7. Godfrey denied any carelessness.

Ford May Offer Stock To Public

DETROIT (AP) — A spokesman for the Ford Motor Co. Wednesday night said speculation by Fortune magazine that Ford soon would offer its family-owned stock for public sale was "a pretty reliable story."

The Fortune story said the multi-million-dollar auto firm will sell the stock to the public in an attempt to gain financial strength and nose out General Motors Corp. for leadership in production and sales in the industry.

The spokesman, who declined identification, said he had been told neither to deny or confirm that the company was planning the move. "The Fortune article is just speculation," he said, "and not too bad, at that."

In a similar story, the Detroit Free Press said it learned preliminary steps leading to the sale of stock in the future already had been taken.

Scientists believe that part of the explanation for the twinkling of stars can be found in normal movements of the human eye.

Find Valuable Ring in Sewer

CONCORD, N. C. (AP) — The maid dumped a glassful of ammonia solution down the kitchen sink and Mrs. John O'Dell frantically called in a crew of plumbers.

Her $2,500 diamond ring was in the glass.

The plumbers placed a screen over the sewer feeder line from the block in which Mrs. O'Dell lives and cooperative neighbors turned on their water taps to flush the line.

Soon the ring was recovered.

COSTS REMAIN STABLE
URBANA - CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — Room and board costs for University of Illinois students are expected to remain unchanged for the coming year from last year.

University-owned residence halls charge $367 a semester for a double room and board. Low-cost housing in temporary buildings, for men only and without board, is the block in which Mrs. O'Dell $100 a semester. Room and board for women in independent houses will be about $350 a semester. Fraternity bills will run about $380 a semester, and sorority bills $400.

Invite Billy Graham to Sinful City

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham was invited to conduct a revival in this once gaudy, bawdy river town, but the military commander in charge of law enforcement here said no.

The Phenix City Ministerial Alliance asked the famed missionary to come here to evangelize against sin and Gov. Gordon Persons added Alabama's official welcome to the invitation.

But Maj. Gen. W. J. Hanna in charge of National Guardsmen maintaining martial law said Wednesday he feared his men would not be able to handle the crowds expected to attend such a revival. Some estimates placed the expected crowds as high as 30,000. Phenix City has a population of about 23,000.

Such a huge visiting throng, Hanna told the Ministerial Alliance might disrupt the cleanup drive which seeks to rid Phenix City of gambling, prostitution and other forms of tawdry and tumble vice.

National Guardsmen took over law enforcement duties here in the wake of the unsolved slaying June 18 of A. L. Patterson, attorney general nominee.

They'll Do It Every Time

Honest Man

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—Back in 1942 Joseph DeFolice sold his auto to a friend. This summer the friend sold the car to Peter Sterbi, cleaning the car, found a wallet DeFolice had lost 11 years ago. He promptly sent it back with the $21 and valuable personal cards and receipts that DeFolice long ago had given up hope of recovering.

Beef Tongue, Mexican Style, Is a Lively Dish

Beef tongue packs a lot of nutrition at budget prices. It can be cooked in many ways and leftover tongue is ideal for sandwiches.

In Chicago recently, we talked to the home economics director of a large packing house. This expert gave us two unusual tongue recipes and a few practical hints on buying and cooking tongue.

Beef tongue usually weighs between 2 and 5 pounds, is sold fresh, smoked, or cured, also cooked, ready to serve, in packages, cans and glass jars.

To cook. Fresh, smoked, cured beef tongues are all cooked in the same way except that only the fresh tongue will require seasoning.

To fresh tongue add 1 tablespoon salt, 1 small onion, sliced; a few whole black peppers (peppercorns) and a bay leaf. Cover the tongue with cold water. Bring the water to a boil, then reduce the heat and simmer until fork-tender, which usually takes 1 to 1½ hours per pound. Remove tongue from water. Cool slightly.

Cut off bones and gristle at thick end of tongue. Split skin from thick end to tip on under side. Use a paring knife to loosen the skin at the thick end. Pull and peel the skin off from thick end to tip. Be careful not to roughen surface.

Beef Tongue, Mexican Style. One cooked beef tongue, sliced; 1 medium onion, chopped; 1 medium-sized green pepper, chopped; 2 tablespoons fat, 1 clove garlic, 1 cup cooked or canned tomatoes, cayenne pepper, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, salt.

Cook onion and green pepper in fat about 5 minutes. Add garlic, tomatoes, dash cayenne pepper, Worcestershire sauce and salt to taste. Simmer 15 minutes. Serve hot over noodles with sliced hot-cooked tongue.

Tongue 'n' Spicy Sauce

(Yield: 4 servings) Twelve slices cooked smoked tongue, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup pineapple juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ cup brown sugar, ½ teaspoon cloves, ½ cup sliced almonds (optional).

Melt butter in saucepan. Combine thoroughly with flour. Add juices, sugar and cloves. Bring to a boil. Serve hot over slices of tongue. Top with almonds, if desired.

President Will Tour Four States

DENVER (AP)—A vast land where men fought to the death for water and one where surging floods have torn apart the works of man will unfold before President Eisenhower when he makes a four-state flight Saturday.

Millions of dollars — including federal funds — have been spent to channel churning streams of the region into giant irrigation and power projects or to confine floodwaters behind dams to save farms and towns.

Billions of dollars will be needed to carry out other projects under discussion, some of which are arousing bitter controversy.

The President's flight, designed to give him a glimpse of reclamation and flood control developments, will take him across Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska and Kansas. Twice he will pass over the Continental Divide with peaks towering up to 14,000 feet, then he will fly over deserts, grazing lands and high plains which usually grow much of the nation's wheat. This year some of the plains country is in the drought disaster area.

Reclamation officials and Secretary of Agriculture Benson will be along to give Eisenhower briefings during the trip, which will cover nearly 2,000 miles.

The President has scheduled 30-minute stops at Grand Junction, Colo.; Casper, Wyo.; and McCook, Neb., during which he will shake hands with Republican political candidates and make informal airport talks.

Veal is plentiful now and prices should fit more easily into your budget. So we asked Mabel Stegeman, executive chef at a distinguished restaurant, to share her recipe for a veal terrine with a foreign accent. Here is her Oriental recipe.

Texas Is Tiny

Brush chops on all sides with tichen bouquet. Place fat in Dutch oven or large frying pan over moderate heat. Brown chops quickly on all sides. Add onion and cook 1 minute. Add salt, marjoram and broth from mushrooms. Cover tightly and allow to simmer over low heat until chops are tender, about 20 minutes.

In the meantime drain chestnuts, reserving broth, and cut in slices about $\frac{1}{8}$ inch thick. Add sufficient water to the chestnut broth to TEXAS, N. J. (P)—No oil, no cotton, and no great big wide open spaces. Just a little community of 100 people or so living in rural part of Madison Township—that's Texas, N. J.

You'll find it on some maps. It's in Middlesex county, about 10 miles southwest of New York City. Nobody hereabouts knows exactly how the hamlet, or the road has the same name running through it, got their names.

Smoked hams and turkeys, will take top billing in food stores of the nation on the upcoming Labor Day weekend. Reductions will range up to 10 cents a pound from week-end prices.

Legs of lamb will be another popular special, with prices down a couple of cents a pound. Fivers also will be featured in many markets.

And you'll probably find pork prices in your store, reflecting sharp declines in hog prices. The popular pork loin roast will be offered at lower prices in many areas, and pork chops, long on the expensive side, will be off rather sharply. One large chain plans these reductions in pork chop prices tags from a week ago: 4 cents a pound in Jacksonville and Pittsburgh, 6 cents in Philadelphia, 8 cents in Washington, 10 cents in New York, Boston, Chicago and Detroit and 14 cents in Los Angeles.

What's more, meat specialist report that you can look for still lower pork prices after Labor Day. The latest drop in the wholesale market has not yet been reflected at retail.

Wholesale beef prices were higher this week and at retail prices held unchanged or advanced a couple of cents a pound. That on standby, chuck roast, still is considered a bargain by food men, however. Veal also offers good value, they say.

The list of "good buys" among vegetables are sweet potatoes, cauliflower, celery, lettuce, and beans, say produce men.

Coffee is getting cheaper all the time. Last week, leading chains dropped prices a dime a pound, and now further cuts are being made on a sectional basis. Some chains in Ohio have cut prices on their brands by another 10 cents, and a similar move is under way in the New York area.

The slopes of the Great Smoky Mountains are drained by more than 600 miles of streams.

At the Cape Cod Inn in Hyannis, Mass., we had sweet little scallops sautéed gently in butter. Earle Jacobs, owner of the pleasantest inn, is a descendant of whaling captains. But he is anything but rough with scallops and other Cape Cod sea food. Here's his recipe. Use either fresh or freshly frozen small scallops.

Cape Cod Inn's Broiled Scallops
Use one shallow casserole dish

5 inches across and 1 inch deep for each person. Butter dish and fill with one layer of Cape scallops, sprinkle with medium cracker or bread crumbs. Season with salt and pepper. Sprinkle with paprika, dot with butter or margarine. Broil slowly under flame until scallops are done.

Cooked Celery Is Different Sunday Vegetable Specialty

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Sunday's vegetables should be a little better, a little out of the ordinary. Our Los Angeles friend, Helen Goodrich, a genius at vegetable cookery, worked up these recipes with Sunday dinner in mind. Quick-Cooked Buttered Celery (4 servings)

Dice 1 medium stalk celery. Cook, covered, in 1-inch boiling, salted water until crispy tender, about 15 to 20 minutes. Serve drenched with melted butter or margarine and seasoned with salt and pepper.

Continental Celery (4 servings)

One medium stalk celery, 1/4 cup butter or margarine, salt, pinch of sugar, iceberg lettuce leaves.

Remove leaves and trim roots from celery. Wash thoroughly, using a brush to remove sand. Dice the branches. Put butter or margarine in bottom of sauce-pan, preferably a heavy one. Add diced celery, salt and sugar. Cover with browned.

wet lettuce leaves, but add no water. Put lid on pan, and cook over very low heat until celery is just tender, about 20 minutes. Scalloped Potatoes 'n' Carrots (4 servings)

Four medium-sized potatoes, peeled and thinly sliced, 2 large carrots, shredded or very thinly sliced, 1 medium-sized dry onion, finely chopped or 2 green onions, finely cut, tops and all, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, salt and pepper to taste.

In a well-greased casserole, arrange layer of potato slices, sprinkling each layer with carrots and onion. Melt butter or margarine and blend in flour. Add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is thickened and smooth. Season with salt and pepper and pour over potatoes. Bake, covered, in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 45 minutes. Uncover and bake 45 minutes longer, or until potatoes are tender and top is delicately browned.

Army's in the Market for Death Ray, Plastic Tooth Filling or a Personal GI Heating System

By KENNETH O. GILMORE
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—If you can stir up a batch of plastic tooth filling or dream up a death ray weapon with a range of 500 yards, send your scheme to the Government.

The National Inventor's Council under the Department of Commerce has drawn up a list of 200 such technical puzzles which the armed forces are anxious to have solved.

The list is especially tailored to the inventive ingenuity of the American public. Amateurs, scientists, technicians and research groups are being urged to take a look at it and come up with some bright ideas.

Many of the problems should appeal to do-it-yourself minded people all over the country. For example, there is need of a landing gear for light aircraft which can be easily adapted to water, land or snow.

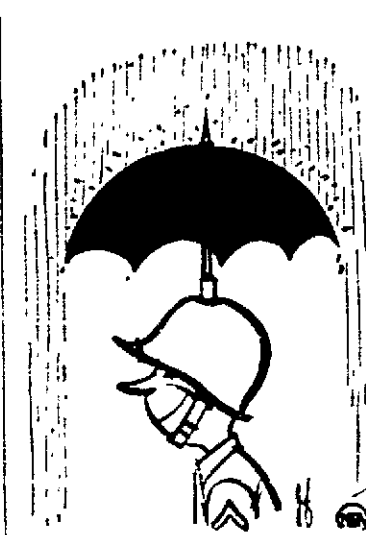

Some of the items are more complicated. It will take a real genius to masterplan a vehicle versatile enough to perform the feats demanded of what the list terms, "Arctic Transport."

This buggy has to be designed to traverse all types of Arctic terrain which, to mention a few, include: Hard rock, solid frozen ground and ice, deep snow, slush, ponds, marsh, muck, floating bog, boulders, gravel, brush, shallow rooted trees, lakes, fies and steep embankments.

Cold weather and snow present some of the most baffling problems. There seems to be no practical substitute for old-fashioned down and feathers which are used in mountain and Arctic sleeping bags. In time of emergency substitute materials should be on hand.

A personal heating system is needed for men exposed to sub-zero temperatures. This device must distribute heat over the human body and yet be independent of any restrictive or heavy electrical power source. It cannot be a fire hazard with "hot spots" and must operate for a minimum of eight hours without refueling.

A chemical such as calcium chloride melts ice on runways at temperatures as low as 65 degrees below zero, but it has a corrosive effect on metal. Therefore the Air Force wants a chemical or substance that can do the job without causing damage to aircraft.

Storage of meats is also a big headache. Dehydrated corn beef hash, meat and rice taste more like fish and metal after sitting three to four months at temperatures around 100 degrees.

Here, briefly, are a few more of the desired gimmicks on the list: A lightweight piece of equipment capable of translating ordinary speech into written word.

Protection for the individual soldier against flame attack which will be comfortable and practical to wear.

Some method to permit combat vehicles to operate under cover of darkness without disclosing their location through the usual means of radiation, light and noise.

A simple directional instrument to be carried by the foot soldier which can determine true north independent of the earth's magnetic field.

Equipment capable of producing death rays effective at 500 yards without excessive power input.

Means other than sonic for determining direction and range of underwater targets.

A plastic filling material which will not shrink or expand, for insertion in a tooth cavity.

From toothpicks to tanks, the National Inventor's Council is glad to receive suggestions even if they are not on the list. Since 1940 when the Council was founded, more than 300,000 proposals have poured in and thousands have been referred to military agencies.

Many of these have resulted in incalculable savings of men, material, time and money, according to Secretary of the Council, Lawrence Langner.

One suggestion in particular made it possible for the Navy to employ a draft gauge which could be read from the inside of a ship.

Previously this had to be done from outside to determine how much water was being drawn.

Due to publication of the list, notable advances have been made in the field of soil stabilization.

Numerous ideas came in for the development of materials which make it easier to build roads and bring in supplies over unstable land such as beaches.

Set $200,000 Valuation on Hausen Estate

Fred H. Hausen, Franklin Grove, left an estate estimated to be worth $200,000, it was revealed today when the will was probated in County Court.

Principal heir was a daughter, Mrs. William Knox, Franklin Grove. A bequest of $500 was made to Mrs. Clarence Maronde, Franklin Grove, and another of $1,000 to the Franklin Grove Cemetery Association. The residue went to Mrs. Knox.

The estate was estimated at $25,000 in personal property and $175,000 in real estate. In other probate action today, the estate of Anna W. Mehlihausen, Ashlon, evaluated at about $5,000, was also probated. Heirs listed were three daughters, Mabel M. Mehlihausen, Marie C. Smith, Edna W. Mehlihausen, and a son, Harvey F. Mehlihausen.

Customers Are Buying, Not Stores

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The customers are buying—but the stores are not. That's the complaint today of many manufacturers of soft goods items, whether it be shoes, clothing, furnishings or notions.

They quote government statistics to back them up. These show that consumer expenditures and store sales generally are running fairly close to last year's level. But in many cases factory output—based on retail ordering, say factory managements—is off considerably from 1953.

Timidity can't be charged to consumers then, but to merchants' fear that the recession might still have backlash.

So the manufacturers argue, adding that some merchants may run out of goods later on and find they've run into delays in deliveries on late orders.

Make It Easier

Merchants take this talk pretty calmly. For one thing, they feel sure that—with production capacity being what it is—they can get quick enough delivery to stock their shelves. For another thing, they know that factories always complain that merchants don't order early enough and in sufficient volume. It would make it easier for the factories to plan production schedules, if merchants put in firm orders well ahead.

But retailers see no reason to carry stocks until demand justifies it. To do so would be expensive—and it could be risky.

This year the argument is more urgent than ever, due to the uncertainty that still hovers over the pre-Labor Day market.

Developments in the soft goods lines this week point up the debate and the fears.

Wool prices are slumping in the Australian auctions, and New York wool dealers fear that fabric makers will put off buying to see where prices settle. The wool being sold now in Australia probably wouldn't reach here much before December, and it would work its way through the mills and garment factories and finally show up on the clothing store racks in the fall of 1955. But uncertainty about its price already worries the wool market here.

Sparsely Stocked

Shoe and leather people, here for the American leather show, complain that retail shelves are too sparsely stocked. The National Shoe Manufacturers Assn. reports that output so far this year is running 7 per cent behind 1953. But members report that orders from retailers have picked up in the last month or so, and the year may yet end close to the 1953 level. The Tanners' Council of America adds hopefully that orders at the show are greater than expected.

See Progress Toward State Mental School

CHICAGO (AP)—A five million dollar mental health school and hospital for completion in 1956 was projected Wednesday by state psychiatric officials.

Dr. Percival Bailey, chairman of the executive committee of the Illinois Psychiatric Research Council, told a news conference a site is now being chosen in the vicinity of the University of Illinois Medical School on Chicago's West Side.

He added that no plans had yet been drawn but that a half-dozen architectural firms had shown interest in the project. He indicated ground probably would be broken for the building by next June.

Dr. Bailey said it was the feeling of the council that a central institution such as the proposed Psychiatric Institute State Hospital was essential to get better young men who will make careers in the field of psychiatry and man the state's hospitals for mental diseases.

He said such a program also would reduce the number of patients in the hospitals by putting into effect better treatment methods which already are known but for which there are not adequate staffs.

"Many hospitals have no psychiatrists on their staffs," he said, "and those that do, have them in administrative work."

The new building, authorized in the last session of the Legislature, would produce the needed staff of psychiatrists, Bailey predicted. As proposed the hospital would be state-operated primarily as a training institution for resident psychiatrists, nurses, attendants and social workers.

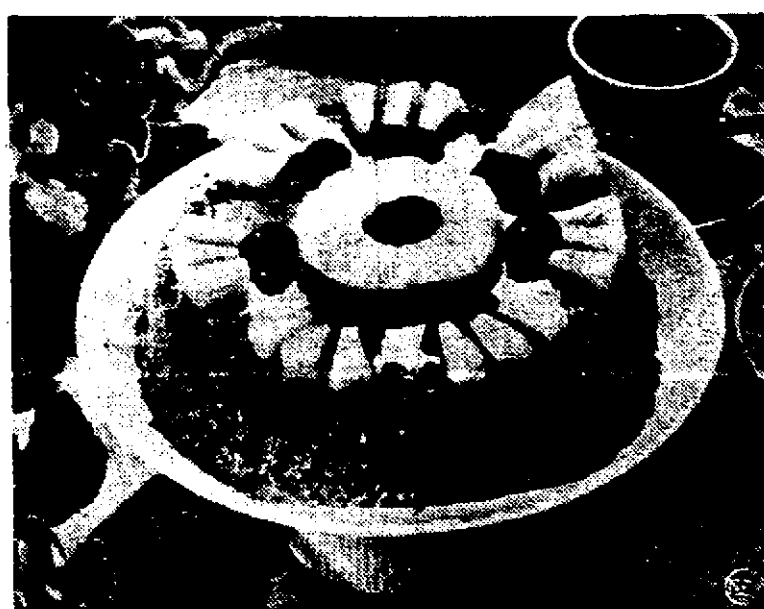

Dog Overboard

FOX LAKE, Ill. (AP)—Speedboat operator Len Koeller brought his new 14-foot boat with a 25-horsepower motor to Pistakee Lake for a trial spin. After he had been out for about 10 minutes his dog got scared and jumped overboard.

Koeller dived in after him, but he forgot to shut off the motor. The Coast Guard Auxiliary crew saved him and the dog and the boat.

Pineapple Crown Cheese Cake Is DeLuxe Dessert

PINEAPPLE CHEESE CROWN CAKE, made from a San Francisco recipe, is a de luxe party dessert.

By GAYNOR MADDON

In her apartment on one of the hills of San Francisco, Esther Hall served us a remarkable cake. We lunched near a window that looked out toward the Pacific Ocean in the general direction of Hawaii—home of the pineapple.

Pineapple Crown Cheese Cake
One and one quarter cups fine graham cracker crumbs, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 8-ounce packages cream cheese, 1 cup sugar, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 pint commercial sour cream, chilled pineapple tidbits, red currant jelly.

Sprinkle sides of a 9-inch, buttered spring form pan with 2 tablespoons of the crumbs. Mix together remaining crumbs, butter and sugar. Pack into bottom of pan. Let cream cheese soften at room temperature. Beat until fluffy. Gradually beat in sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each.

Fold in vanilla and room temperature sour cream. Pour over crumbs in pan. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, 30 minutes. Turn off heat and allow cake to cool in oven, about 1 hour. Chill.

At serving time, top with a crown of drained canned pineapple and dots of currant jelly. This is very, very rich so small wedges are in order, perhaps with additional chilled pineapple.

While fresh cultivated blueberries are still in the market, have a good time with the New Jersey waffle recipe.

Blueberry Bacon Waffles
(Yield: 8 medium waffles)

Two eggs, 1½ cups all-purpose flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1½ cups milk, ¼ cup (1 print) butter or margarine, melted, 1 cup blueberries, 6 slices crisp bacon, crumbled.

Beat eggs until foamy with rotary egg beater. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together into eggs. Add milk and beat smooth. Add melted butter or margarine and beat until batter is smooth. Fold in blueberries and bacon. Bake on a hot waffle iron according to manufacturer's directions. Serve with butter or margarine and syrup.

Limited Market

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Two of the nation's dairy leaders say Europe presents a very poor market for surplus U. S. dairy products. Prof. Paul Weaver, of the Michigan State College dairy department, and H. W. Norton Jr., researcher for the Holstein-Friesian Assn., said they found on a tour of France, Germany, the Netherlands, Denmark, Switzerland and England that these countries have their own dairy surplus problems—and are looking for markets themselves.

STRANGER THAN FICTION—He was the first Chinese in West Point, a general, a senator and president of a university. Fate's wheel turned and Ying H. Wen, above, now runs a laundromat in Washington. The business itself adds a further touch of irony since it was the traditional trade of the Chinese of the past—though his "laundry" is strictly modern with 20 automatic washers. The 67-year-old general was a student at Virginia Military Institute when appointed to West Point, class of 1909. In China he had an outstanding military and political career. Breaking with Chiang Kai-shek in 1951 he fled back to the U. S. A friend staked him in business. Son Patrick is also a distinguished military man. A graduate of V. M. I., he is now a major on Formosa.

Downstate Counties Can Raise Officers' Salaries

New Pay Scales Will Be Set by County Boards

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Downstate Illinois counties are getting ready to revise salaries of their sheriffs, county clerks and several other elective officers. Mainly, raises are on tap.

With some exceptions, the new pay scales will be determined by county boards, or commissioners—in most cases at annual meetings Sept. 14. They will go into effect when officers elected Nov. 2 enter on their terms in December.

Generally, the forthcoming salary changes represent the rebalancing of a train of events started in 1951. Then, the Legislature proposed to delete outmoded salary ceilings shuffled in December 1956 for the offices of coroner, clerk of Circuit Court, auditor and, in the larger counties, recorder of deeds.

The changeover comes in two phases because of a constitutional provision prohibiting an increase or a decrease in salary during the term for which an officer is elected.

Will Get More

County judges and probate judges elected Nov. 2 will get more than their predecessors. The exact amount of increases was specified last year by the Legislature, and county boards have nothing to say about it. As against present salary range of $3,600 to $9,500 a year, depending on county population, judges elected this fall will draw from $4,200 to $11,200 annually.

The old maximums for the eight fee officers ranged from $1,500 a year in counties under 20,000 population to $4,000 in counties over 100,000 residents. But there were two exceptions.

County boards that chose were permitted to pay their sheriff an additional $1,500 to $4,000 a year, according to county size, as county-supervisor of safety. The option to do this will remain. The second exception affected county clerks, who county boards were obliged by law to pay an extra $1,500 to $4,000 annually as clerk of County Court.

Set Up Brackets

The 1953 Legislature repealed the mandatory second source of pay for county clerks, and set up these salary brackets for all eight fee officers:

Counties under 30,000 population, $4,000 to $6,000; 30,000 to 60,000, from $5,500 to $7,500; 60,000 to 100,000, from $6,000 to $9,000; 100,000 to 150,000, from $7,000 to $10,000; 150,000 to 250,000, from $7,000 to $11,000.

Thus, if a county in the highest population category decided to, it could set the sheriff's compensation as high as $15,000 a year — $11,000 for basic salary, and $4,000 as safety supervisor. None of the other fee officers could draw more than $11,000.

A major restrictive factor will operate on the pay actually received by the fee officers, at least in the smaller counties, regardless of the salary settled on by the county board.

Set By Law

No fee officer may lawfully be paid in excess of fees collected by his office. For example, a coroner in a small county where few deaths occur might collect only a few hundred dollars in fees during the year, and as a practical matter this would determine his pay—even though the county board by resolution established it at $4,000 annually.

In anticipation of the dependence of the county officers on their fees for any increase in pay actually received, the 1953 Legislature increased the fees for a multitude of services performed by the various county officers. The higher fees have been in effect over a year.

Extra Drains

Relatively small extra drains on county general funds are certain to stem from the impending pay boosts for county and probate judges. Otherwise, the additional burden on a county's treasury will depend on the level at which fee officers' salaries are pegged by

Police Watch Stag Deer in Leadership Bid

DETROIT (AP)—Two wildly shouting policemen witnessed two stag deer battle for 30 minutes for control of the 30-deer herd on Belle Isle, a heavily traveled recreation area.

Patrolman John Brode and Joseph Brasko were driving through a wooded picnic area of the island. They said they saw the two deer suddenly charge.

The officers towed their car horn and yelled, but said the stags ignored them. After 30 minutes of this, the officers said, the deer stopped fighting and ran into the woods. Control of the herd apparently still had not been settled.

the board of supervisors. Fees collected by an office in excess of the amount required to maintain it are deposited in the general fund.

Chicago's 'Food for Life' Exhibit Tells About Food

TEN-YEAR-OLD Dick Willets, Jr., checks his growth against "the nutritional man" at Chicago's "Food for Life" exhibit.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Right eating means better health, less sickness, prompt recovery from injury, more vigor, happiness and ability to enjoy longer active life. And it's never too late to start learning how to eat for a better life.

The "Food for Life" exhibit, recently opened at Chicago's handsome Museum of Science and Industry on Lake Michigan, tells the graphic story of all man knows about food and how it contributes to growth and well-being.

Using live baby pigs, chickens that hatch before your eyes, fluffy yellow ducklings, and sheep as white as Mary's little lamb, it makes clear to children and adults alike the vital role of right eating. There are also electronic displays which fascinate youngsters, teaching them the part the seven basic foods play in their growth, mental alertness, and ability to play hard and win in the battle of life.

We went about the exhibit with 10-year-old Dick Willets, Jr. He explained the giant-size "nutritional man," working the electric buttons that demonstrate how minerals, proteins, fats, carbohydrates and vitamins build a man's body and keep it working.

He thinks the exhibit is "pretty super" and he likes to visit it often and takes other fellows with him, "mostly skinny kids who don't know how to eat good."

This remarkably interesting "Food for Life" exhibit is sponsored by Swift & Co. at the invitation of the museum directors. It will be open every day in the year except Christmas at 9:30 a.m. As young Dick, tall, well nourished, and good looking, led us about, we hoped millions of other growing children and their parents, too, will visit the exhibit and learn that right eating strengthens and lengthens life. America needs well-nourished, courageous, and clear-eyed citizens these dangerous days. Good nutrition is the front line of our national defense.

Let It Grow Some More, Judge Says

CHICAGO (AP)—John E. Tibbetts, 28, appeared in Superior Court with a beard he grew while spending six months in alimony row in the Cook County jail.

"I grew this beard as a protest against being jailed for debt," Tibbetts told Judge Elmer N. Holmgren. "That is a violation of both the state and federal constitutions."

A complaint by Tibbetts' former wife, Lorraine, 28, that he was $2,460 in arrears in support payments for her and their four children had led to the jail sentence last March 2 for contempt of court. Tibbetts, a machine operator who acted as his own lawyer, told Judge Holmgren he could not raise the $1,000 bond necessary for his freedom. Holmgren ordered him back to jail.

Wonderful Land

OSCEOLA, Iowa (AP)—This is what impressed Ghanous S. Jabir, a native of Jerusalem, Israel, about the United States:

He was in this country 40 days before stopping here and he had not seen any two Americans in a fight or quarrel. Also on a trip which took him from New York to Indianapolis, California, Yellowstone National Park, Colorado, Nebraska and Iowa, he said he had not met a single person who was not educated.

Japan's milk production in 1953 was 182,208,000 gallons, 21.9 per cent above the previous year.
